

SUBJECT MATTER INDEX

IMMIGRATION OPTIONS FOR ACADEMICS AND RESEARCHERS, 2ND ED.

A

ABA. See American Bar Association
AC21. See American Competitiveness in the Twenty-first Century Act Accreditation Council for Graduate Medical Education (ACGME) affiliated teaching hospitals and H-1B visa cap, 166
ACWIA. See American Competitiveness and Workforce Improvement Act
Address reporting
J-1 visas, 82
Administrative processing visa refusals and, 205–7 Advertising
for faculty members and teachers, 272–79, 311–18. See also Special Handling/Recruitment process Affiliates
H-1B cap and, 25, 161–69, 379–81. See also H-1B visas Age of client
researchers, 72
American Bar Association (ABA)
Model Rules of Professional Conduct, 352
Model Rule 1.0(m), 356
Model Rule 1.6, 356
Model Rule 3.3, 356, 357
American Competitiveness and Workforce Improvement Act (ACWIA) honorary allowed, 87, 196–97 portability of H-1B visas, 144 prevailing wage provisions, 147–59 administrative appeal or litigation not possible, 151 affiliated entities, 149–50
audits, 156–57
avoiding incorrect determinations, 156–57 compilation methodology, 152–54 computational problems, 152–58 discrepancies between Higher Education database and All Industries database, 152 DOL refusal to apply prevailing wage data from ACWIA database, 149 DOL refusal to recognize nonprofit's right to ACWIA-based prevailing wage, 150–51 finding discrepancy when preparing prevailing wage request, 157–58 GeoLevel categories, 154 institution of higher education, defined, 147–49 situations where there are no ACWIA data available for occupational code, 155–56

Special Handling/Recruitment process, 325

American Competitiveness in the Twenty-first Century Act (AC21)
H-1B cap exemption, 161, 167
H-1B extensions, 331, 355
American National Red Cross
as government-sponsored or private corporation, 230–31 Amnesty programs eligibility for, 29
Arrests
consular processing for students and scholars who have been arrested, 200–201 for driving under influence, 201 Arts and sciences
exceptional ability in. See Exceptional ability extraordinary ability. See Extraordinary ability Schedule A, Group II, 262–65. See also Schedule A, Group II Asylum
applications, 28, 30
Audits
I-9 compliance audits, 335, 345–49 internal audits, 364–65
PERM audit file, 283
prevailing wage provisions, 156–57
Australia
E-3 visas, 179–80
Authorship of scholarly books or articles
outstanding researchers, 222–23
Schedule A, Group II arts and sciences, 265
Awards. See Prizes or awards

B

B-1 visas
honorary and, 196–97
B-2 visas
family unity and, 207–8
honorary and, 196–97
student visitors, 189
Burden of proof
outstanding researchers, 224

C

Canada
L-1 visas, 197–98 musicians and H-2B visas, 197
point system, 37–38
students and academics studying and/or working in U.S., third-country processing for, 190–91 student visitors from, 190 third country national (TCN) visa applications at consulates in, 191–92 TN visas, 180–82

relevant to colleges, universities, and related institutions, 193–96

Change of status from B-2, 190
from J-1, 83
to J-1, 83–84
Checklists
employment authorization for professors and researchers, 8–9 permanent immigration options for professors and researchers, 7 PERM worksheet and filing checklist, 283 SEVIS data consistency, 104 temporary immigration options for professors and researchers, 6 Chile. See H-1B1 visas

China

EB-2 foreign workers from, seeking permanent residence and employment authorization, 331 incentive immigration programs, 41–43

Chronicle of Higher Education

recruitment of faculty through, 277, 311–12

Citizenship

qualification for, 28

Citizenship discrimination

IRCA coverage, 363–64

Civil Rights Act of 1964

Title VII discrimination prohibition, 319

Classification of Institutional Program (CIP) code

Form DS-2019, 92

College counsel

advice on immigration law, 11–25, 297–301, 361–68 compensation policy. See Compensation DOL recruitment compliance, 21–22 employee vs. independent contractor status, determination of, 361–62 ethics. See Ethical considerations federal tax issues and nonresident aliens, 22–24 H-1B cap and affiliates, 25 hiring advice. See Hiring process; PERM; Special Handling/Recruitment process honorary and work authorization, 24 I-9 compliance and proper work authorization, 12–15 institutional models for providing immigration services, 297–98 interns, 25
paying for visa petitions/applications, 17–18

 permanent employment requirements, 20–21 sabbaticals, 25
 social media policy, 367–68 sponsorship application or petition, construed as employment contract, 19–20 types of applications/petitions to prepare in-house, 15–17 unauthorized employment, 24 volunteerism concerns, 24–25

Compensation
 exceptional ability, evidence of, 289, 291 new hires working without, while waiting for work authorization, 366–67 prevailing wage. See Prevailing wage determination

Conrad 30 waivers
 foreign national physicians, 141–42

Consular processing for students and scholars, 199–208 arrests requiring special processing, 200–201 conviction/inadmissibility/waiver/misrepresentation, 202–5 potential admissibility, 200–205

Consultation requirement
 O-1 visas, 173–74, 176

Consultations. See Short-term consultations

Contiguous territory rule application of, 192–93

Convictions. See also Crimes of moral turpitude inadmissibility due to, 202–5

Counterterrorism and Criminal Exploitation Unit (CTCEU) investigations of nonimmigrants who violate their status, 98

Country of last residence
 Form DS-2019, 92

Cover letters
 O-1 visas, 174–75

Crimes of moral turpitude inadmissibility due to, 31, 202–5

Critique of U.S. immigration system
 generally, 33–66
 Canada’s point system, 37–38
 Chinese incentive programs, 41–43 current U.S. immigration policy, 43–57 EU’s Blue Card, 39
 Indian incentive programs, 41–43 international competition for talent, 36–43 recommendations for changes, 57–66
     EB-1-1 and EB-1-2 regulations reform, 62–64 lottery for highly skilled immigrants, 60–61 National Interest Waiver, 64–66
     Ph.D. programs leading to permanent residency, 61–62 point system, adoption of, 58–61 Request for Evidence (RFE), 63

 UK’s new point scheme, 39–41

D

DECOR letters
 employment verification, 344–45

Defense of Marriage Act (DOMA)
 Obama administration’s treatment of, 30

Dependents
 DOS and regulatory requirements for ECFMG-sponsored J-1 physicians, 116
 J-1 visas, 86

Discrimination
 prohibitions, 319, 363–64, 365

Diversity Lottery
 eligibility for, 29
 for highly skilled immigrants, recommendation of, 60–61

Driving under influence arrests for, 201

Drug crimes
 inadmissibility due to, 31, 202–5

Dual representation ethics in, 358

E

E visas
 E-3 visas (Australia), 179–80 students or researchers eligible for, 29

East Tennessee State University decision (2011) advertising for faculty members and teachers, 272–77, 314–15

Educational Commission for Foreign Medical Graduates (ECFMG) certification process, 108–9
 DOS and regulatory requirements for ECFMG-sponsored J-1 physicians, 113–17 change of specialty, 115
     dependents, 116
     duration of stay, 115
     educational training, not employment, 114
     insurance requirements, 114–15 proposed changes in training, 116
     repeat training, 115
     sponsorship for ABMS member board exams, 115–16 strong ties to home country/temporary nonimmigrant visas, 113–14 30-day grace period, 117
     transfers, 115
     travel, 116–17
     2-year home physical presence requirement, 114
     waivers, 117, 359
 Electronic Residency Application Service (ERAS), 108, 109–10 international medical graduates (IMGs) entry into U.S. medical education, 108 H-1B visa classification, 110 visas for U.S. graduate medical education, 110

J-1 alien physician sponsorship for clinical training activities, 110–11
 ECFMG’s role, 111
 J-1 physician’s role, 112
 State Department’s role, 111
 teaching hospital’s role, 111–12

medical residency as permanent position, 355 National Resident Matching Program (NRMP), 109–10 overview of, 107–8
 prerequisite requirements, 112–13 adequate prior education and training, 112 official contract or letter of agreement, 113 Statement of Need, 112–13 resource list, 121
 role of, 107–21
 sponsorship application process and fees, 118–21 continuation of sponsorship and maintaining J-1 visa status, 120 initial application, 118–19 initial validation, 119–20 reinstatement, 120–21
     sponsorship requiring DOS approval, 117–18 extension beyond maximum duration of stay, 117–18
         J-1 change of category and program transfer, 117

Electronic journals
 recruitment of faculty through, 278–79, 311–12

Employment-based visas
 EB-1 visas
     circular reasoning approach, 47–49 compared to EB-2 and special handling for professors, 293–95 IMMACT90’s regulations, 51–53
     Kazarian v. USCIS (9th Cir. 2010), 50–51. See also Kazarian case numbers used annually, 44 outstanding professors. See Outstanding professors persistent confusion, 53 priority workers, 43
         proposed 1995 regulations, 49
         Weinig approach, 46–47
     EB-1-1 visas, 44–53
         regulations, 46
     EB-1-2 visas, 44–53
         employer’s ability to pay, 218 number of full-time employees engaged in research, 217–18 outstanding researcher cases, 215–26 permanent offer of employment, 216–17

 petitioning institutions, issues for, 216–18
 regulations, 46
 standard to qualify for, 216 EB-2 visas (second preference), 267–68, 285–92. See also Exceptional ability entrepreneurs, 269
 professionals holding advanced degrees and immigrants with exceptional ability, 43, 293–95 ethical considerations of attorney in, 351–58 clarification on who is the client, 353–54 filing process and attestations, 354–55 Form I-140 as relief strategy, 355–58 re-recruiting and multiple recruitment efforts, 354
   third preference, 268
Employment contracts sponsorship application or petition construed as, 19–20 Employment verification. See also E-Verify attorney consultation on, 345 copying of documents, 339 definition of employee, 339–40 document abuse, 364 filling out I-9 form, 143–44
   “Handbook for Employers: Instructions for Completing Form I-9,” 142, 144
   I-9 Central, 142
   I-9 compliance by colleges, 12–15
   ICE audits, 335, 345–49
   IMAGE participation, 338–39 information to new hires about process, 340 internal audits, 364–65 maintenance of forms, 342, 344, 364 no-match letters, 344–45
   notices after audit, 348–49 Notices of Inspection for audit, 346–48 paper vs. electronic forms, 336–37 re-verification, when necessary, 342–43 review of procedures and compliance, 335–49 safeguard system, 341–42 separation from other employment documents, 343 stepped up enforcement, 143, 363 streamlining process for I-9 completion, 342, 365 terminated employees, 342, 343–44, 364–65 timely completion of I-9 form, 340–41 training of employees responsible for I-9 process, 341, 365, 366 Entrepreneurs
   EB-2 category expanded to include, 269

ETA Form 9089
   Special Recruitment Application, 320–23
Ethical considerations of attorney in employment-based immigration, 351–53 in dual representation, 358 from employer’s perspective, 351–59
European Union
   Blue Card, 39
E-Verify
   advantages/disadvantages of, 366, 369–71 compliance required by government contracts, 14–15 determining whether employer required to enroll in, 337–38 maintenance of binders with I-9 forms, 342 maintenance of I-9 forms, 342
   use of, 335
Evidentiary issues
   exceptional ability. See Exceptional ability Kazarian case (9th Cir. 2010), 254–55
   outstanding researchers, 218–24
   comparable evidence, 223
Exceptional ability case law summary, 290–92 defined, 262
   definitions, 286
   difference from extraordinary ability, 261 DOL regulations, 261–66
   evidence of, 287–90
     academic record from institution of learning, 287–88, 292 comparable evidence, 289–90 compensation for services, 289, 291 license or certification for profession or occupation, 288–89 membership in association, 289, 291 prizes or awards for achievement, 289, 290–91 reference letters from employers proving at least 10 years of experience, 288 filing procedure, 286–90 regulatory language, 286
     Schedule A, Group II and, 261–69. See also Schedule A, Group II second preference employment-based visas, 43, 285–92 statutory language, 286
Exceptional hardship waiver
   J-1 visas, 93
Exchange visitors. See J-1 visas
Executive Office for Immigration Review (EOIR) rules for practice of lawyers and representatives, 352 Export compliance “deemed export,” defined, 210–11

Export Administration Regulations (EAR), 209 extensions of H and O classifications, 214 Form I-129 requirements, 211–12 “fundamental research,” defined, 211 “fundamental research exclusion,” defined, 211 International Traffic in Arms Regulations (ITAR), 209 at research universities and national laboratories, 209–14 short-term collaboration and, 214 terminology and concepts, 209–14 visa extensions and, 214 Extensions
   ECFMG-sponsored physicians, beyond maximum duration of stay, 117–18
   H-1B visas, 144
     approved export control license for, 214
     LPR process and extensions, 124, 355
   J-1 visas of professors and researchers, 77–78
   O-1 visas, 175, 214
Extraordinary ability
   EB-11 or EB-12 visas, 247–56. See also Employment-based visas; Kazarian case
   O-1 visas, 175
   reference letters in support of petitions, 3

F

F-1 visas
   change from B-2 visas to, 190 F-1 OPT status
     benefits of, 306
     travel limitations, 307 Fair Labor Standards Act (FLSA) trainees exception, 366–67 Family unity ways to achieve, 207–8
Fannie Mae
   as government-sponsored private corporation, 229 Federal Acquisitions Regulations
   E-Verify enrollment of employers and, 337
Federal Home Loan Banks
   as government-sponsored or private corporation, 231
Federal Reserve Banks
   as government-sponsored or private corporation, 231–32
Foreign language teachers recruitment process. See Special Handling/Recruitment process Foreign medical graduates
   alien physician sponsorship for clinical training activities, 110–11 Conrad 30 waivers, 141–42
   ECFMG’s role, 107–21. See also Educational Commission for Foreign Medical Graduates

J-1 visas, 76–77
short-term scholars, 79

Foreign nationals
physicians and Conrad 30 waivers, 141–42
section 212(e) applicability, 91–92
tax issues, 373–78

Form DS-2019
cumulative nature of, 91–92 issuance of, 82
SEVIS and, 84

Form DS-3036
Exchange Visitor Program
Application, 129

Form ETA-9089
Schedule A, Group II, 266

Form I-9. See Employment verification

Form I-94
travel for F or J status, 192

Form I-129
Petition for Nonimmigrant Worker, 209 university and national laboratory compliance, 211–12

Form I-140
ethical considerations for attorneys in filing, 354–58

Foundation for Advancement of International Medical Education and Research (FAIMER)
establishment of, 108

Fraud Detection & National Security (FDNS)
H-1B visa petitions and, 171

Fraud or misrepresentation attorney in employment-based immigration, 352
civil liability for immigration applications, 357
inadmissibility due to, 205

Fulbright-Hays Act of 1961 purpose of J-1 program, 73

G

Government Accountability Office (GAO) on export of technology to countries of concern, 209

Government funding
J-1 waiver, 93

H

H-1B visas
cap and affiliates, 25, 161–69, 379–81 ACWIA regulation applied to AC21 statute, 167 defining affiliated or related nonprofits, 161–63
healthcare industry terminology,
use of, 165–66
recommendations for standards, 169 shared ownership and common control, 167–68

USCIS application of ACWIA definition, 163–64
USCIS unique definition of “related or affiliated,” 164–65 chart of advantages/disadvantages, 134–35
compared to other visas to E-3 visas, 179
to J-1 visas, 123–35
to O-1 visas, 171
DOL recruitment compliance, 21–22 duration, 124, 133, 144
extensions, 144
approved export control license for, 214
delays in LPR process, 124, 355 filing fees, employer payment of, 18 Fraud Detection & National Security (FDNS) visits, 171
full-time vs. part-time employment, 124 honoraria and, 24
IMMACT90’s effect, 124–25
I-9 requirements. See Employment verification
international medical graduates (IMGs), 110
Labor Condition Application (LCA), 126–28, 137, 142
LPR process and extensions, 124 master’s cap and, 125 petition requirements, 126, 132 portability, 144–45
public access file, 142 quotas, 125–26
records requirements, 142
short-term placement, 141–42
Special Handling/Recruitment process
bypassing, 306–7
foreign residence requirement and, 329
sponsor liabilities, 132 time to be spent outside U.S., 124 types of employers, 124, 139–40 types of workers/occupations covered, 123–24
wages and prevailing wage determination, 137–39, 367 what constitutes employer-employee relationship in terms of Neufeld memo, 140–41

H-1B1 visas
nonimmigrants from Chile and Singapore, 125, 182

H-2 visas
permanent job offers, 21

H-2B visas
Canadian musicians, 197

“Handbook for Employers: Instructions for Completing Form I-9” USCIS revision (June 2011), 142, 144

Health insurance. See also Insurance requirements
J-1 dependents, 86

Hiring process

discrimination. See Discrimination employment-based visas. See Employment-based visas
I-9 verification. See Employment
verification
labor certification. See Labor certification
nonimmigrants. See Nonimmigrant status; specific types of visas recruitment of faculty and teachers.
See Special Handling/Recruitment process

Honoraria

ACWIA allowing, 87
B-1/B-2 visas and, 196–97 work authorization and, 24

I

I-9 verification. See Employment verification

Illegal Immigration Reform and Immigrant Responsibility Act of 1996 (IIRAIRA)

civil liability for misrepresentation and false statements, 357 criminal penalties for failure to disclose role as document preparer, 357

IMAGE program

participation of private sector employers, 338–39

Immigrant visas. See also specific types Schedule A, Group II standards, 261– 69

Immigration Act of 1990 (IMMACT90) employment-based immigration system revision, 35, 43

H-1B visas, 124–25
outstanding researcher provision, 233 second preference employment-based category, 285

Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE)

I-9 enforcement. See Employment
verification

Immigration Reform and Control Act of 1986 (IRCA)

document abuse, 364
I-9 verification, 12, 143, 335, 363. See also Employment verification retaliation prohibition, 364 Section 2 discrimination prohibition, 319, 363–64

Immigration services

in-house counsel. See College counsel institutional models for providing, 297–98

outside counsel, 299–301

Immigration status discrimination

IRCA coverage, 363–64

Independent contractors employees vs., 361–63 tax issues and W-9 forms, 377

India

EB-2 foreign workers from, seeking permanent residence and employment authorization, 331 incentive immigration programs, 41–43

In-house counsel

for immigration services. See College counsel

Insurance requirements

ECFMG-sponsored J-1 physicians, 114–15
J-1 dependents, 86
J-1 exchange visitors for academic and research activities, 85

Intake of clients

generally, 27–31

Intent to fine notice

after ICE audit, 348–49

Interested government agency (IGA)

J-1 waiver, 94

International competition for talent

Canadian point system, 37–38
EU, 39
India and China, 41–43

International Traffic in Arms*Regulations (ITAR)

defined, 209

Interns

J-1 visas, 25, 80–81

IRCA. See Immigration Reform and Control Act of 1986*IRS. See Tax issues*J*J-1 visas

alien physician sponsorship for clinical training activities, 110–11
ECFMG's role, 111
J-1 physician's role, 112
State Department's role, 111
teaching hospital's role, 111–12 application procedures, 184
chart of advantages/disadvantages, 134–35 compared to other visa statuses, 87 to H-1B visas, 123–35
dependents, 86
health insurance requirement, 86
J-2 classification, 86
school attendance, 86
work authorization, 86
DOS and regulatory requirements for ECFMG-sponsored J-1 physicians, 113–17
change of specialty, 115
dependents, 116
duration of stay, 115
educational training, not employment, 114
insurance requirements, 114–15
proposed changes in training, 116
repeat training, 115
sponsorship for ABMS member board exams, 115–16

strong ties to home country/temporary nonimmigrant visas, 113–14 30-day grace period, 117
transfers, 115
travel, 116–17
2-year home physical presence requirement, 114
waivers, 117
employment eligibility for academics, 81 exchange visitors for academic and research activities, 73–89, 128–31 change of category, 83 change of status from J-1, 83 change of status to J-1, 83–84 correcting status problems, 84–85
duration of stay, 133
ease of use, 131–32
ending program, 84
insurance requirements, 85
participant activities and participant qualifications, scope of, 129–31 participant qualifications and restrictions, 132–33 procedures for, 83–85 program sponsor designation, 128–29 requirements, 85–86
sponsor liabilities, 132
sponsors, requirements for, 129 sponsors and responsible officers, responsibilities of, 129 termination of J-1, 84 transfer of J-1 program, 83
travel, 85
2-year home residence requirement, 85–86
honoraria and, 24
intern category, 25, 80–81
definitions, 80
program length, 81
sponsoring department requirements, 80–81 student requirements, 80 processes at colleges and universities, 82–83
address reporting, 82
completion of program, 82 DS-2019 forms, issuance of, 82 eligibility determination and collection of data, 82 SEVIS fee, 82–83
SEVIS record, arrival and validation of, 82 professors and researchers, 74–78, 182–83 academic qualifications, 75 duration of program and extensions, 77–78 eligibility for category, 75–77
foreign medical graduates, 76–77 grace period at end of program, 78, 307 location of exchange visitor activity, 78

occasional lectures and short-term consultations, 78
postdoctoral research positions, 76, 307 prohibition on tenure-track or tenured position, 75 12-month bar, 75–76
24-month bar, 76
waiver recommendation of request for extension, 78 section 212(e) applicability, 91–94
advisory opinions, 92
Classification of Institutional Program (CIP) code, 92
compliance, 92
country of last residence, 92
foreign nationals, 91–92 setting up J-1 program, 87–89 applying for designation, 87–88 Exchange Visitor Program (EVP) requirements, 88 responsible officers, 88–89 SEVIS considerations, 74
short-term scholars, 78–79, 130, 183
definitions, 78–79
foreign medical graduates, 79
location of activity, 79 occasional lectures and short-term consultations, 79
program length, 79
requirements for short-term scholar programs, 79 Special Handling/Recruitment process and foreign residence requirement, 329–30 specialists, 79–80, 183
definitions, 79
program length, 80
requirements for participants and sponsors, 80 two-year home country residence requirement, 1–2, 85–86, 183–84
waivers, 2, 92–94
exceptional hardship, 93
government funding, 93
interested government agency (IGA), 94 no objection statement, 93 options for J-2s, 94 persecution, 94

J-2 visas

dependents, 86
waiver options, 94

Job descriptions

PERM, 282–83
Special Recruitment Application, 320–21

Judging work of others

outstanding researchers, 221
Schedule A, Group II arts and sciences, 264

K*Kazarian case (9th Cir. 2010)

analysis of, 247–56
 application to O-1 petitions, 176–77 denial of Kazarian’s petition, 251
 EB-1 visas, 50–51
 EB-1-2 visas, 215, 225
 future application of, 255–56, 293, 355 National Interest Waiver (NIW) and, 258 pre-Kazarian background, 248–51, 355 procedural history of Kazarian’s petition, 251–52 Schedule A, Group II and, 261 two-step adjudicative approach, 252–56
 USCIS Policy Memorandum in response to, 268–69

L*L-1 visas

Canadians, 197–98

Labor certification

as alternative when 18-month deadline missed for Special Handling, 333–34 PERM requirements, 21–22. See also PERM teaching profession, applicability to, 271

Labor Department, U.S.

prevailing wage determination. See American Competitiveness and Workforce Improvement Act; Prevailing wage determination

Law enforcement

SEVIS and, 98

Lawful permanent residence attorney consultation when employer will be sponsor for, 358–59 eligibility through family sponsor, 29–30

Library of Congress

as government-sponsored or private corporation, 232

License or certification for profession or occupation

exceptional ability, evidence of, 288–89

M*Medical allied professions

TN categories, 194–95

Medical education. See also Foreign medical graduates affiliated teaching hospitals, 165–66 ECFMG’s role, 107–21. See also Educational Commission for Foreign Medical Graduates

Medicare reimbursements affiliated teaching hospitals and, 166

Membership in associations

exceptional ability petitions, 289, 291 outstanding researcher petitions, 220–21 Schedule A, Group II petitions, 264

Mexico

students and academics studying and/or working in U.S., third-country processing for, 190–91
 third country national (TCN) visa applications at consulates in, 191–92 TN visas, 180–82
 relevant to colleges, universities, and related institutions, 193–96

Misrepresentation. See Fraud or misrepresentation*Mutual Educational and Cultural Exchange Act of 1961 exchange visitor category, 128

 purpose of J-1 program, 73

N*Name matches

security clearances and, 207

National Interest Waiver (NIW)

EB-2 status without labor certification, 43, 53–57
 eligibility for, 257–59
 INS attempts to define “national waiver,” 54–55
NYSDOT case as sole AAO precedent, 55–57, 65, 257–59 recommendations for changes, 64–66
 reference letters in support of, 3

National laboratories. See also Export compliance nature of, 213

National Labor Relations Act

social media, restrictions on access and, 368

National origin discrimination

IRCA coverage, 364

Neufeld memo

outstanding researchers, private employers only may file for, 227–28 what constitutes employer-employee relationship, 140–41

No-match letters

employment verification, 344–45

Nonimmigrant status. See also specific types of visas alternative options for academics and researchers, 179–84 relationship to SEVIS, 95–105 treaty-based visas, 179–82 volunteerism and, 24–25

Nonresident aliens

tax issues, 22–24

North American Free Trade Agreement (NAFTA)

Mexican and Canadian nationals, TN visas, 180–82

Notices. See also Posting notice*requirement intent to fine notice after ICE audit, 348–49 Notices of Inspection for ICE audits of I-9 forms, 346–48 post-inspection notices after ICE audit, 348–49

O*O visas

honoraria and, 24
 O-1 visas, 171–77
   compared to H-1B visas, 171
   consultation requirement, 173–74, 176
   cover letters, 174–75
   extensions, 175
   approved export control license for, 214
   extraordinary ability, 175
   Kazarian case (9th Cir. 2010), application to, 176–77 permanent or tenure-track positions, 175 reference letters, 172–73, 176 supporting documents, 174
 O-1B visas for instructors in the arts, 176

Occasional lectures and short-term consultations

J-1 visas
   professors and researchers, 78
   short-term scholars, 79

Optional practical training (OPT)

UN internship, 29

Originality

of research, 71–72, 221–22
 Schedule A, Group II arts and sciences, 264–65

Outside counsel

for immigration services, 299–301

Outstanding professors comparison of EB-2 and special handling to, 293–95, 332–33 permanent job offers, need for, 2–3

 reference letters in support of, 3

Outstanding researchers

authorship of scholarly books or articles, 222–23 burden of proof, 224
 comparable evidence, 223
 EB-1-2 cases, 215–26. See also Employment-based visas evidentiary issues, 218–24 IMMACT90 and, 233
 judging work of others, 221 legislative history on, 234–35 membership in associations, 220–21 non-traditional researchers, 223–24 original scientific or scholarly research contributions to academic field, 221–22 peer letters of recommendation, 219 permanent job offers, need for, 2–3 practice tips, 224–25

 private employers, not government agencies, may file petitions for, 227–38 prizes or awards for outstanding achievements, 219–20 proposed regulations (1995), 235–36 published material about the person, 221 reference letters in support of, 3 3 years of research experience, 218–19

P

Patents

researchers, 70–71

Performing arts

Schedule A, Group II standards, 265–66

PERM (Program Electronic Review Management)

advertising for faculty members and teachers and, 272–75 audit file, 283
 centralization and standardization of process, 282 DOL compliance, staying abreast of, 283–84 internal notice posting, 283 job description and minimum qualifications, 282–83 labor certification requirements, 21–22 practice advisory, 281–84 prevailing wage determination, 282
 recruitment, 283
 Special Handling carve-out, 22, 281, 303–34. See also Special Handling/Recruitment process sponsorship policy, 282 worksheet and filing checklist, 283

Permanent job offers

EB-1-2 visas, 216–17
 need for, 2–3, 20–21

Permanent or tenure-track positions

O-1 visas, 175

Persecution. See also Asylum

J-1 waiver, 94

Ph.D. programs

foreign Ph.D. acceptable, stating in ads, 316 leading to permanent residency, 61–62

Physicians. See Educational Commission for Foreign Medical Graduates (ECFMG); Foreign medical graduates

Point system

recommendations for changes to U.S. immigration system, 58–61

Port of entry

student visitors, 189–90

Postdoctoral research positions

J-1 visas, 76, 307

Posting notice requirement

PERM internal notice, 283
 Schedule A, Group II, 266
 Special Handling/Recruitment process,

326–28

Prevailing wage determination

ACWIA provisions, 147–59. See also American Competitiveness and Workforce Improvement Act H-1B visas and, 137–39, 367
 Schedule A, Group II, 267
 Special Handling/Recruitment process, 282, 323–26

Private employers

AAO decision in Matter of X (2007) and, 228–29, 239–45 definition of, 229–32
 government agencies not construed to be, 227–38 USCIS interpretation of, 236–37

Prizes or awards

for exceptional ability, 289, 290–91 for outstanding research achievements, 219–20 Schedule A, Group II arts and sciences, 263–64

Professors

advertising for, 272–75
 checklist
   employment authorization for, 8–9 permanent immigration options for, 7 temporary immigration options for, 6 critical immigration issues for, 1–3 J-1 visas, 74–78, 130, 182–83. See also J-1 visas
 outstanding professors. See Outstanding professors permanent job offers, need for, 2–3 practical tips, 4–5
 Special Recruitment process for. See Special Handling/Recruitment process traps for unwary, 3–4

Publications

handling, organizing, and presenting for researchers, 69–70 outstanding researchers, 221–22
 Schedule A, Group II arts and sciences, 265

R

Recruitment

PERM Special Handling carve-out (Special Recruitment), 22, 271–79, 283, 303–34. See also Special Handling/Recruitment process

Reference letters

exceptional ability, reference letters from employers proving at least 10 years of experience, 288 extraordinary ability, national interest waiver, and outstanding professors, 3
 O-1 visas, 172–73, 176
 outstanding researchers, 3, 219 strong vs. weak reference letters, 10

Request for Evidence (RFE)

recommendations for changes, 63

Researchers

age of client, 72
 checklist
   employment authorization for, 8–9 permanent immigration options for, 7
   temporary immigration options for, 6 critical immigration issues for, 1–3 fundamental research, 67–72 handling, organizing, and presenting publications, 69–70 J-1 visas, 74–78, 130, 182–83. See also J-1 visas originality or substantial intrinsic merit, 71–72 outstanding researcher cases, 215–26. See also Outstanding researchers outstanding researchers. See Outstanding researchers patents, 70–71
 permanent job offers, need for, 2–3 practical tips, 4–5
 traps for unwary, 3–4 writing research summary, 67–69

Research universities

export compliance of, 209–14. See also Export compliance

Residency programs for medical education. See Educational Commission for Foreign Medical Graduates

S

Sabbaticals

employment authorization and, 15, 25

Same-sex marriage

adjustment of status and, 30

Schedule A, Group II

arts and sciences, legal standard for, 262–65 acclaim and international recognition, 262–63 authorship of scholarly publication, 265 judging work of others in field, 264 membership in international associations, 264 original or scholarly research contributions, 264–65 prizes and awards for excellence, 263–64 published material about person, 264 satisfying at least 2 regulatory criteria, 263–65 work has and will continue to require exceptional ability, 263 chart on prerequisites, 270 compared to EB-1 visa classification, 333 definition of exceptional ability, 262

DOL regulations, 261–66
 employer-sponsored only, 262 employment-based immigrant visa second preference, 267–68, 285–92
   third preference, 268
 Form ETA-9089 for petitioner, 266 international legal standard for, 266 performing arts, legal standard for, 265–66
 posting notice requirement, 266
 prevailing wage determination, 267
 standards, 261–69
 USCIS Policy Memorandum in response to Kazarian case, 268–69
 USCIS requirements, 267–69

School attendance
 J-1 dependents, 86

Scientific technicians/technologists
 TN profession, 193–94

Section 212(e)
 J-1 visas, applicability to, 91–94

SEVIS
 automatic system updates, 102 benefits eligibility and, 97–98 checklist for data consistency, 104 Correct SEVIS Status, 84 data fixes, 102–3
 event-based reporting for F and M schools, 101–2 fee, 82–83
 J-1 visas, 74
 law enforcement and, 98 nonimmigrant status, relationship to, 95–105 no-show reporting, 101 officials designated to interact with, 98–99 records arrival and validation of, 82 creation of, 99–100
   statuses, 100–101
   updating, 100
 reporting requirements, 101–2 SEVIS II development, 95, 97, 99 situations that may arise, 103–4

Short-term consultations approved export control license for, 214
 J-1 visas
   professors and researchers, 78
   short-term scholars, 79

Short-term placement
 H-1B visas, 141–42

Short-term scholars
 J-1 visas, 78–79, 130, 183

Singapore. See H-1B1 visas

Smithsonian Institution
 as government-sponsored or private corporation, 229–30

Social media
 university/college policy on use of, 367–68

Special Handling/Recruitment process, 22, 271–79, 283, 303–34
 advantages of, 304–7

advertising and other recruitment sources, 311–13, 322–23 advertising content and consistency with application of foreign worker, 313–18 after 18 months from date of selection, 310–11 labor certification as alternative, 333–34 business necessity questions, 321–22 bypassing H-1B process, 306–7 compared to other processes, 332–34 compliance files, 329
 date of selection, determination of, 310–11 drafting ETA Form 9089 (Special Recruitment Application), 320–23 EB-1 compared to EB-2, 293–95, 332–33 experience requirement in ads, 316–17 FAQs, 304
 finding most qualified applicants, 305 foreign worker meeting all advertised criteria, 317–18, 322 foreign worker with “substantially comparable” employment at same institution, 317–18 hiring official’s statement to verify competitive process, 319–20 inappropriate situations for, 329–31 institutions eligible for, 307–8 job requirements, 320–21 labor certification as alternative when 18-month deadline missed, 333–34 minimum educational requirement in ads, 315–16 nonimmigrant status of foreign worker precluding, 329–31 Ph.D. from foreign institution, 316 positions eligible for, 308–9 posting notice requirement, 326–28 preferences in ads, 314–15
 prevailing wage determination, 282, 323–26
 regulatory provisions, 304 selection committee’s report, 318–19 statutory provisions, 304 step-by-step process, 309–29 streamlined and fast, 305–6 submitting application electronically, 328–29 Technical Assistance Guide, 304, 308 visa number unavailability problem, 331

Specialists

J-1 visas, 79–80, 183

Sponsorship

application or petition, construed as employment contract, 19–20 DOS and regulatory requirements for ECFMG-sponsored J-1 physicians, 113–17
 H-1B visas, 132
 PERM policy, 282
 Schedule A, Group II employer-sponsored only, 262

State Department, U.S.

alien physician sponsorship for clinical training activities, role in, 111 ECFMG-sponsored J-1 physicians, requirements for, 113–17

State laws

E-Verify enrollment of employers, 337 misclassification of employee vs. independent contractor, 361–62

State sponsors of terrorism

administrative processing and, 206
 no automatic revalidation for visa applicants from, 193

Stopping Trained in America Ph.D.s from Leaving the Economy Act (STAPLE Act, proposed)

benefits of, 62

Student visitors

B-2 visas, 189–90

T*Tax issues

foreign national’s tax status, 373–78 closer connection exception, 375 current year physical presence test, 374 disclosure requirements, 375 exempt individual exception, 374–75 first-year residency election, 376 independent contractors and W-9 forms, 377 joint return election, 376–77 students, 375
 substantial presence test, 374 tax treaty exception, 375–76, 377–78 teachers, 374–75
 3-year look back test of physical presence, 374 misclassified employees as independent contractors, 362
 nonresident aliens, 22–24

Technology Alert List

administrative processing and, 206–7

Terminated employees

I-9 forms, 342, 343–44, 364–65

Terrorism, state sponsors of

administrative processing and, 206
 no automatic revalidation for visa applicants from, 193

Third country national (TCN) visa applications consulates in Mexico and Canada processing, 191–92

TN visas

Mexican and Canadian nationals, 180–82 professions and educational requirements/credentials, 185–88 relevant to colleges, universities, and related institutions, 193–96

Trainees

J-1 visas, 130–31

Travel

contiguous territory rule, application of, 192–93
 DOS and regulatory requirements for ECFMG-sponsored J-1 physicians, 116–17
 F-1 OPT students and J-1 students, during permanent residency process, 307
 H-1B visas, 192
 J-1 exchange visitors, 85
2-year home residence requirement
 ECFMG-sponsored J-1 physicians, 114
 J-1 visas, 1–2, 85–86, 183–84
 waivers for physicians, 359

U*U visas

eligibility for, 29

Unauthorized employment

on-campus work by students or dependents of nonimmigrant visas, 24

Unfair labor practices social media, restrictions on access, 368

Unions

posting notices and. See Posting notice requirement

United Kingdom (UK)

new point scheme, 39–41

University counsel. See College counsel*V*Visa refusals administrative processing and, 205–7

Visas Donkey program

security clearances, 207

Visa Waiver Program (VWP)

prior arrest or conviction, 204

Voluntary Worker Classification*Settlement Program

misclassified employees as independent contractors, 362

Volunteerism

concerns over volunteering by nonimmigrant visa holders, 24–25

W*W-9 form

independent contractors, 377

Wages. See Compensation*Waivers. See also National interest waiver

J-1 visas, 2, 92–94
 nonimmigrant waiver for inadmissibility, 203–4 2-year home residence requirement for physicians, 359 Visa Waiver Program (VWP), prior arrest or conviction, 204

Warning notice

as result of ICE audit, 348

Work authorization

J-1 dependents, 86
 new hires working without pay while waiting for, 366–67 tickler system to monitor expiration dates, 364

X*X, Matter of (AAO 2007)

private employer vs. government employer, 228–29, 239–45

