

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

Regina “Gina” Germain is a veteran asylum attorney and former senior legal counselor for the Washington, D.C. office of the United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees. She teaches Asylum Law and an Asylum Practicum at the University of Denver Sturm College of Law. She also served as Legal Director of the recently closed Rocky Mountain Survivors Center. She remains active in the torture treatment community’s National Capacity Building program and recently completed the development of the legal portion of the fundamentals course to be given to staff at torture treatment centers across the United States. She is a frequent speaker at local and national conferences on asylum and refugee issues and has written numerous articles. Ms. Germain graduated magna cum laude from the University of Pittsburgh School of Law and holds an LL.M. from the Georgetown University Law Center. She taught asylum law at Georgetown Law and currently serves on the advisory board of the Georgetown Immigration Law Journal.