

Biography

Richard A. Boswell is a professor of law at the University of California, Hastings College of the Law, and director of the law school's Immigrants Rights Clinic. He is a frequent lecturer throughout the United States and abroad before lawyers and others on a range of immigration topics. Professor Boswell is the author of numerous books and law review articles in the immigration field, most notable of which is his law school casebook, Immigration Law and Procedure: Cases and Materials (3rd Ed. 1999). He also is co-author of Refugee Law and Policy: Cases and Materials (2nd. Ed. 1997). Most recently, Professor Boswell served as co-editor-in-chief of the Clinical Law Review and president of the Clinical Legal Education Association. He is a long-time member of AILA and has served on its board of governors. Professor Boswell also has worked in a number of countries (the West Bank and Gaza, Latin America, and most recently, Haiti) consulting on the establishment of clinical law programs and rule of law projects.