

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

Anna Marie Gallagher is a U.S.-trained attorney currently living in Spain and doing international consulting work in the area of refugee and migration law and policy. She has practiced criminal defense, human rights, and immigration and refugee law in the United States, Central America, and Europe during the past 20 years. She was a teaching fellow at the Center for Applied Legal Studies (CALs) at Georgetown University Law Center from 2000 to 2002 and the Pedro Arrupe Tutor on Refugee and Migration Law at the University of Deusto, Bilbao, Spain, from 2002 to 2004. Ms. Gallagher is the author of the Thomson/West treatise Immigration Law Service, 2d, and co-author with Thomas Hutchins of Thomson/West's Immigration Pleading and Practice Manual. She and her husband, Juan Luis Guillen, run a bed-and-breakfast in a small village near their home in the wine region of Ribera del Duero, Spain.