

SUBJECT-MATTER INDEX

A

ability to pay

- immigrant visas, 100–101
- Yates memo (2004), text 561–63
- nonimmigrant visas, 155–56

acquisitions, see Mergers, acquisitions, and spin-offs

Adjudicator's Field Manual

- text of §22.2 (employment-based IVs), 533–41
- updates to §§20.2(d), 31.2(d), and 31.3(g) (2008 Neufeld memo), 585–602
- updates to §§31.2(d), 31.3(g), and 32.6 (2006 Aytes memo), 653–63

adjustment of status (AOS)

- chefs and cooks, 405
- consular processing vs. AOS, 109–10
- extension of nonimmigrant status while AOS is pending, 107–08
- filing procedure, 105–06
- H-1B workers, see H-1B visas
- overstays, 106–07
- portability, 108
- sample checklist, National Benefits Center, 665–71
- status violators, 106–07
- unauthorized employment, effect on AOS, 106–07

Administrative Appeals Office (AAO), see Appeal and review

American Competitiveness in 21st Century Act (AC21), see H-1B visas

APIS (Advanced Passenger Information System), 128

appeal and review

- AAO, 463–71, 493–94
- briefs and motions, 465–66
 - see also* Writing guidelines
- expedited review, 468
- motions to reopen, 468
- notice, 464–65
- oral argument, 468
- strategies, 469–71
- BIA, 474–92
 - brief writing, see Writing guidelines
 - draft language and checklist, 482492
 - notice of appeal, 480–84
 - summary affirmance, 482
 - summary dismissal, 481
 - theory of the appeal, 477–80

- federal-court declaratory relief, 499–523
- appeals to circuit court, 522–23
- assignment of judge, 510
- Chevron* deference, 512–15
- electronic filing, 509–10
- exhaustion of administrative remedies, 463, 468, 477, 480, 483, 499, 509
- expedited proceedings, 511
- jurisdiction, 500–507
- oral argument, 519
- party to bring suit, party to sue, 507
- pleadings, 508–10
 - sample complaint, 627–48
- pretrial motions, 510–11
- remands, 519
- ripeness, 499–500
- rules of procedure, 508
- statute of limitations, 508
- summary-judgment motions, 511–18
- venue, 507
- federal-court mandamus actions, 518–19
 - sample complaint, 623–26

approval notice

- nonimmigrant visas, 155–56

Armed Forces of the U.S., see Military personnel

artists, see P visas

athletes

- EB-1 visas, 24–25, 615–21
- P visas, see P visas
- traded professional O-1 athletes, 354

attestation

- LCAs, see Labor condition applications
- religious workers, 67

attorneys

- ethics
 - EB-5, ethical considerations, 96
 - lying clients, what to do, 110–13
- fees, see Attorneys' fees
- research and writing, see Research tools; Writing guidelines
- Rule 11 sanctions, 520
- USCIS disclosure to attorneys of any security-check hits, 143

Attorneys' fees

- EAJA requirements, 520–22
- increasing likelihood of recovery by choosing proper plaintiff, 507

prohibition against H-1B employer recouping from beneficiary, 279–81

Australian specialty occupations, see E-3 visas

awards

proving extraordinary ability (EB-1), 14–15

B

B-1 business visas, 179–85

business activities, 180–85

chefs and cooks, 401–02

E-visa enterprise set up by foreign national admitted with B-1 visa, 190

in lieu of H-1B or E-3, 183–85, 226

under NAFTA, 182–83

procedures, 180

B-2 tourist visas, 186

baccalaureate degrees, see Degree equivalencies

background checks, see Security checks

biometrics, see Security checks blanket L-1 visas, see L-1 visas

board of directors members

B-1 visas, 182

Board of Immigration Appeals (BIA), see Appeal and review

burden of proof, see Evidence

C

Canadians, see NAFTA and TN visas

cap-gap, see Numerical limitations change of address

filing AR-11, 167

change of status

cap-gap for changes from F-1 OPT to H-1B, 215–16, 362–63

E-3 visa holders, 204

H-1B nonimmigrants, 224

porting after filing application to change to B-2, F-1 or H-4, 219–20

Hernandez letter (2004) on last-action rule, 609–10

nonimmigrant visas, 158

chefs and cooks, 401–06

B-1 visas, 401–02

E-2 visas, 402

EB-1 visas, 407

H-1B visas, 402–03

immigrant visa petitions and adjustment of status, 406–07

J-1 visas, 403

L-1 visas, 404

labor certification, 405

O-1 visas, 404

Q-1 visas, 404

TN visas, 405

chemists

O visas, 353–54

children

see also specific visa types

naturalization, 120

Chilean professionals

H-1B1 visas, 244–45

CLASS (Consular Lookout and Support System), 130–34

College Level Examination Program (CLEP)

degree-equivalency determination, 251–52

computer and IT professionals, 321, 414–20

Assuta Medical Center v. USCIS (CA9 2007), full text, 611–14

RFE responses, AILA-VSC liaison guidance, 603

concurrent filing

religious workers, 68

conditional residency, see EB-5 visas

consular processing

vs. adjustment of status, 109–10

security checks, see Security checks

visa stamps, applying for and extending, 160–64

continuous residence and physical presence

H-1Bs, recapturing time outside of U.S., 223–24 naturalization applicants, 116–19

LPRs working abroad for U.S. government

contractor or U.S.-owned company, 117–19

LPR spouses of U.S. citizens working abroad, 119

re-entry permits, 119

contractors

H-1B visas, 210

cooks, see Chefs and cooks

corporate mergers and acquisitions, see Mergers, acquisitions, and spin-offs credentials, see Degree equivalencies

cultural exchange visitors, see Q visas

D

database administrators, see Computer and IT professionals databases, see O*NET; Security checks

declaratory relief, see Appeal and review

Professionals: A Matter of Degree, Fifth Ed.

- degree equivalencies, 250–71
 - case law recognizing degree equivalencies
 - federal-court decisions, 267–71
 - unreported AAO decisions, 266–67
 - credentials evaluation services, 59
 - evaluation by, 248–49, 253–54
 - testimony by, 458
 - DOL definition, 40–41
 - drafting the work-experience letter, 258–61
 - licensure requirement, 263
 - master’s degree positions, 257–58
 - nonprofessional positions, 256
 - professional-association membership, 254
 - professor’s opinion, 251
 - Program on Noncollegiate Sponsored Instruction (PONSI), 251, 253
 - subject of degree, relevancy of “wrong” degree, 263–66
 - three-for-one rule, 255–61
 - flaws in rule, 266
 - proving work experience, 258
 - USCIS interpretations, 41–42
 - denials, challenges to, see Appeal and review
 - Department of Defense (DOD)
 - H-1B visas for cooperative R&D projects, 243–44
 - Department of Labor (DOL)
 - Online Wage Library, 276–78
 - resources for determining professional and specialist status, 383–400
 - security checks, see Security checks
 - Department of State (DOS)
 - exchange visitor program, see J-1 visas
 - dependent employers, see H-1B visas
 - Dictionary of Occupational Titles (DOT), 386–95
 - doctors, see Physicians
 - domestic employees
 - B-1 visas, 182
 - domestic partners
 - see also* Spouses
 - B-2 visas for same- or opposite sex domestic partners, 186
 - dormant visas, 164
 - dual intent, see Immigrant-intent presumption
- E
- E-1 / E-2 visas (treaty traders/investors), 189–206
 - application procedures (excerpt from Frankfurt info packet), 571–78
 - B-1 status holder setting up E enterprise, 190
 - chefs and cooks, 402
 - dependents of E-1 and E-1 principals, 202
 - work authorization for spouses, 202
 - eligibility, 191–94
 - essential personnel, 199–201
 - executives and managers, 199
 - hospitality management professions, 406
 - list of countries, 191–92
 - pending immigrant petitions, 190
 - procedures, 189–90
 - requirements
 - E-1 treaty trader, 194–95
 - E-2 treaty investor, 195–99
 - start-up companies and new enterprises, 200
 - E-3 visas (Australian specialty occupations)
 - B-1 visas in lieu of E-3, 183–85
 - dependents, 205–06
 - eligibility, 203–04
 - extension and change of status, 204
 - FAQs (excerpt from consulate website), 579–83
 - procedure, 203
 - temporary stay in U.S., 204–05
 - EB-1 visas, 7–37
 - chefs and cooks, 406
 - extraordinary ability, 7–25
 - EB-2 national interest waiver as alternative, 24
 - prospective employment, 8
 - proving extraordinary ability, 9–25
 - athletics, 24–25, 615–21
 - awards, 14–15
 - commercial success, 22–23
 - comparable evidence, 23
 - conference presentations, 21
 - displays at artistic exhibitions, 21
 - high salary, 22
 - leading role for organization with distinguished reputation, 21–22
 - membership in associations, 15–16
 - original contributions, 18–19
 - participating as judge of work of others, 17
 - published material about beneficiary, 16–17
 - scholarly publications, 19
 - “science, arts, education, business or athletics,” 8–9
 - substantial benefit, 9
 - hospitality management professions, 408
 - multinational corporate personnel, 29–37
 - executive and managerial personnel, 30–33
 - functional managers, 33–37
 - outstanding professors and researchers, 26–39
 - EB-2 visas, 39–56
 - degree equivalencies, see Degree equivalencies
 - exceptional-ability applicants, 47–48

- national interest waivers, 49–56
 - as alternative to EB-1, 24
 - clinical physicians, 56
 - professionals with advanced degrees, 42–47
 - Schedule A precertification, 48–49
- EB-3 visas, 57–60
 - H-1B petitions, drafting to conform with EB-3 requirements, for possible future immigrant visa application, 242–43
 - professionals, 57–59
 - skilled workers, 59–60
 - unskilled workers, 60
- EB-4 visas (special immigrants), see Religious workers
- EB-5 visas (immigrant investors), 69–97
 - 2002 amendments, 92–96
 - AAO interpretations vs. theory, 91–96
 - capitalization requirement, 75–76, 80
 - legal acquisition of capital, 81–82
 - conditional residency
 - naturalization of CRs, 116–17
 - procedures to remove condition, 86–87
 - employment-creation requirement, 77–79, 82
 - ethical considerations, 96
 - fraudulent investments, deterrence of, 90
 - Immigrant Investor Pilot Program, 71–72
 - initial evidence, 79–86
 - managerial capacity of investor, 83
 - new commercial enterprise, 73, 75, 80
 - original businesses, 73
 - pooling arrangements, 74–75
 - regional centers, 84–86
 - statutory requirements, 71–79
 - benefiting U.S. economy, 77
 - existing businesses, 73–74
 - targeted employment areas, 83–84
 - termination of EB-5 status, 89–90
 - troubled businesses, 82
- editorial professions, 423–24
- education and training category codes, 435–43
- electronic databases, see O*NET; Security checks
- electronic filing
 - federal-court action, 509–10
 - nonimmigrant visas, 157
- employment, terms of
 - drafting the petitioner's letter, 167–78
- employment-at-will
 - drafting the petitioner's letter, 167–78
- employment authorization, see Work authorization
- employment-based immigration
 - see also specific visa classifications and specific professions*
 - AFM §22.2 (full text), 533–41
 - history of employment-based visas, 3–5
- employment-creation visas, see EB-5 visas
- employment verification
 - corporate mergers and acquisitions, I-9 review, 382
 - E-Verify program
 - F-1 students OPT, 360–61
- English-language requirements
 - J-1 visas, 315
- entertainers, see P visas
- entry, unlawful
 - bars to admission, 166–67
- Equal Access to Justice Act (EAJA), see Attorneys' fees
- equestrian show jumper
 - extraordinary ability, full text of 2007 TSC decision, 615–21
- essential personnel
 - E visas, 199–201
- essential workers, see Unskilled workers
- ESTA (Electronic System for Travel Authorization), 127–28
- ethics, see Attorneys
- E-Verify program, 360–61
- evidence, 445–61
 - anticipating appeals, 476
 - on appeals to AAO, 466–69
 - burden of proof, 445
 - corroborative evidence, 451–52
 - degree evaluation service, testimony by, 458
 - expert witnesses, 447–59, 516
 - prior approvals
 - as persuasive evidence, 459–61
 - significance of (text of 2004 Yates memo), 567–70
 - requests for evidence, see Requests for evidence (RFEs)
 - standard of proof, 445–47, 455
- exceptional ability
 - EB-2 applicants, see EB-2 visas
- exchange programs, see J-1 visas; P visas; Q visas
- executive and managerial personnel
 - see also* Functional managers
 - E visas, 199
 - EB-1 visas, 30–33
 - L-1 visas, 337

exhaustion of remedies, 463, 468, 477, 480, 483, 499, 509

experience

degree equivalencies, see Degree equivalencies

expert witnesses, see Evidence export controls and technology transfer, 147–54

employer intake questionnaire, sample, 649–52

security checks, 134

extension of status

E-3 visa holders, 204

H-1B workers, see H-1B visas

H-3 trainees, 302

L-1 intracompany transferees, 343

nonimmigrant visas, 158–60

extraordinary ability

EB-1 visas, see EB-1 visas

O visas, see O visas

F

F-1 academic students

optional practical training (OPT), 357–63

basic OPT, 357–58

change to H-1B status

cap-gap, 215–16, 362–63

Hernandez letter (2004), 609–10

E-Verify program, 360–61

extension for STEM (science, technology, engineering, math) graduates, 359–62

maintenance of status, 362

reporting requirements, 359, 361

timing of OPT application, 358

types of employment, 358

related to field of matriculation, 358–59

fashion models

H-1B visas, 243

FBI name checks, 129–30

fifth employment-based preference, see EB-5 visas

first employment-based preference, see EB-1 visas

foreign medical graduates (FMGs), see Physicians

“foreign national”

definition for export-licensing purposes, 149

forms

AR-11 change of address form, 167

DS-2019, 311–12

see also J-1 visas

ETA-9035E

see also Labor condition applications (LCAs)

filing requirement, 272

G-325 security checks, 130

I-829, immigrant investor petition to remove condition, 86–89

N-470, filing exemption from continuous-residence requirement, 117–19

text of forms

I-360 (Petition for Amerasian, Widow(er), or Special Immigrant), 551–60

M-736 (Checklist for Nonimmigrant Religious Workers), 547–48

M-737 (Checklist for Special Immigrant Religious Workers), 549

fourth employment-based preference, see Religious workers fraud

H-1B willful violators, 213, 282–85

immigrant investor program, 90

lying clients, see Attorneys, subhead: Ethics

free-trade agreements, see H-1B1 visas; NAFTA

functional managers

drafting the petitioner’s letter, 175–78

EB-1 visas, 33–37

G

Google searches, 529–30

anticipating searches by USCIS, 114

graphic designers, 424

H

H-1B visas, 207–300

AC21 impact on processing Forms I-140, I-129, & I-485 (text of 2008 Neufeld memo), 585–602 adjustment-of-status issues, 225–26, 293–94, 295, 296, 585–602

application procedures, 207–08, 585–602

B-1 visas in lieu of H-1B, 183–85, 226

changes in employment details, 287–300

corporate structure, 289–90

successors-in-interest, 102–03, 290

downsizing issues, 297–300

furloughs and temporary plant shutdowns, 298–99

layoffs, terminations, or resignations, 299–300 adjustment, impact on, 293–94

extension of status, impact on, 291–92

portability, impact on, 292–93

return transportation, 224–25

travel, impact on, 294

location of jobsite, 288–89

material change, determination of, 288

reduction in wages or benefits, 297–98

- changes of status, 224
 - porting after filing application to change to B-2, F-1, or H-4, 219–20
 - chefs and cooks, 402–03
 - contractors, 210
 - Defense Department cooperative R&D projects, 243–44
 - degree equivalencies, see Degree equivalencies
 - dependent employers and willful-violator employers, 213, 282–85
 - additional LCA attestations required, 284–85
 - determining H-1B dependency, 283
 - exempt H-1Bs, 283–84
 - identifying willful violators, 283
 - expiration of H-1B approval
 - impact on H-1B extension, portability, adjustment, and travel, 295
 - extension of status, 221–23, 291–92, 294, 295
 - Aytes memo (2006), 653–63
 - Neufeld memo (2008), 585–602
 - fashion models, 243
 - filing fees, 211–12
 - historical context, 207–08
 - hospitality management professions, 406–07
 - immigrant intent, elimination of presumption, 211
 - lapses in prior H-1B employment, 291
 - layoffs, see subhead: Changes in employment details (in this heading)
 - LCAs, see Labor condition applications
 - length of authorized stay, 221–24
 - mid-level and functional managers
 - drafting the petitioner's letter, 175–78
 - multiple sponsors, 216
 - numerical limitations, 213–16
 - cap-gap for F-1 OPT, 215–16, 362–63
 - nurses, 411
 - period of admission for aliens previously in H-4 or L-2 status (Aytes memo 2006), 653–63
 - portability, 217–21, 292–93, 294, 295, 296, 585–602
 - recapturing time outside of U.S., 223–24
 - requirements, generally, 209–17
 - resignation, see subhead: Changes in employment details (in this heading)
 - return transportation, 224–25
 - short-term reassignment to worksite not covered by LCA, 285–86
 - specialty occupation
 - see also* Degree equivalencies
 - complex job duties, 238–39
 - definition of, 226–45
 - conforming H-1B petition for possible future EB-3 application, 242–43
 - employer standard, 235–38
 - industry standard, 234–35
 - proof
 - of specialist standard, 239–42
 - that individual meets standard, 245–71
 - regulatory framework and interpretative decisions, 234–43
 - TARP (Troubled Assets Relief Program) issues, 213
 - termination of employment, see subhead: Changes in employment details (in this heading)
 - travel, 294, 295, 296
 - by porting H-1Bs, 218–19
 - unauthorized employment or violation of terms and conditions of status
 - impact on H-1B extension, portability, adjustment, and travel, 295–96
 - willful violators, see subhead: Dependent employers and willful-violator employers (in this heading)
- H-1B1 visas (Chile/Singapore FTA), 244–45
- H-1C visas (nurses in underserved areas), 409, 411
- H-3 trainees, 301–08
- procedures, 301–02
 - program documentation, 302–03
 - purpose of training, 302–03
 - sample training program and plan, 304–08
 - strike, effect of, 303
- health care professionals
- see also* Nurses; Physicians
 - Military Accessions Vital to the National Interest (MAVNI) program, 121–23
- history of employment-based visas, 3–5
- 2002 amendments to EB-5 program, 92–96
- hospitality management professions, 406–09
- E-2 visas, 406
 - EB-1 visas, 408
 - H-1B visas, 406–07
 - L-1 visas, 407
 - labor certification, 409
 - O-1 visas, 407–08
 - TN visas, 408

I

- I visas (foreign-media journalists), 309–10
- IAFIS (Interagency Fingerprint Identification System), 128
- IBIS (Interagency Border Inspection System), 128–29
- IDENT (Automated Biometric Fingerprint Identification System), 128

immigrant-intent presumption, 161
 H-1B and L-1 visa holders, elimination of presumption, 211
 O visa holders, 354
 R visa holders and dual intent, 376
 TN workers, 326

Immigrant Investor Pilot Program, see EB-5 visas

immigrant visas
see also specific visa classifications and specific professions
 AFM §22.2 (full text), 533–41
 chefs and cooks, 405
 filing procedure, generally, 99–110
 history of employment-based visas, 3–5

Immigration and Naturalization Service (INS)
 “no tolerance” policy, origin, 2 post-9/11 reactions, 1–3

investors, see E-1 / E-2 visas; EB-5 visas

Irish Peace Process Program (Q-2 visas), 372–73

IT professionals, see Computer and IT professionals

J

J-1 visas (exchange visitors), 311–18
see also Physicians
 chefs and cooks, 403
 DOS functions, 312–13
 English-language fluency, 315 foreign-residency requirement, 315–18
 waivers, 316–18
 hospitality management professions, 408
 program categories, 312 regulatory changes, 313–14
 SEVIS, 143
 sponsors and “umbrella” programs for trainees and interns, 313 training in designated occupational category, 315

journalists
 working for foreign media, see I visas working for U.S. employer, 309 judicial review, see Appeal and review

jurisdiction
 federal-court challenges, 500–507

L

L-1 visas (intracompany transferees), 331–44 anti job-shop provisions, 343–44 blanket L-1 visas, 332–34, 336–37
 chefs and cooks, 404
 dependents and work authorization, 344

dissolution of foreign entity, 344
 eligibility, 331–32
 executives and managers, 337
 extension and readjudication of eligibility, 343
 hospitality management professions, 407
 new-office L-1 visas, 334–35
 procedures, 335–37

labor certification
 chefs and cooks, 405
 hospitality management professions, 409
 Schedule A, see Schedule A

labor condition applications (LCAs), 271–87
 attestations, 273–82
 for dependent employers and willful-violator employers, see H-1B visas re effect on similarly employed workers, 281 re notice to union rep or affected workers, 281–82 re strikes or lockouts, 281 re wages, 273–81
 actual-wage determination, 274–76
 attorneys’ fees, prohibition against employer recoupment, 279–81 prevailing-wage determination, 276–79 changes in employment details, effect on LCA, 287–90
 short-term reassignment to worksite not covered by LCA, 285–86 complaints against employers, 271–72 contents of LCA, overview, 272–73 corporate mergers and acquisitions, LCA review, 382 as liability document, 271 public access file, employer required to maintain, 286–87 withdrawal of LCA, 287

labor unions
 LCA attestations
 notice to bargaining representative, 281–82 strikes and lockouts, 281

language proficiency, see Translators and interpreters

last-action rule, 164–65
 H-1B porting after filing application to change to B-2, F-1 or H-4, 219–20
 Hernandez letter (2004), 609–10

lawful permanent residents (LPRs), see Adjustment of status; Continuous residence and physical presence; and specific visa classifications and specific professions

liability documents
 labor condition applications, 271

- licenses and credentials, 263
see also Degree equivalencies; Export controls and technology transfer
- litigation, see Appeal and review
- lockouts
 LCA attestation regarding, 281

M

- management consultants
 TN visas, 322–24
- managers, see Executive and managerial personnel;
 Functional managers
- mandamus actions, 518–19
 sample complaint, 623–26
- marketing professionals, 420–22
- master's degrees, see Degree equivalencies
- mergers, acquisitions, and spin-offs, 379–82
see also Successors-in-interest basic rules for amending petitions, 379–80
 step-by-step guidance on visa matters, 381–82
- Mexicans, see NAFTA and TN visas
- military personnel
 MAVNI program (Military Accessions Vital to the National Interest), 121–23 naturalization of servicemembers, 120, 122
- MIS managers, see Computer and IT professionals
- Moslem-country foreign nationals
 NSEERS, 144–46
 special DOS security checks, 133–34
- multinational corporate personnel
 EB-1 visas, 29–37
 intracompany transferees, see L-1 visas

N

- NAFTA and TN visas, 319–29
 appeal of denial of TN status, 325–26
 B-1 visas under NAFTA, 182–83
 chefs and cooks, 405
 dependents, 326
 employment offer, 320–21
 hospitality management professions, 408
 list of TN professionals, 327–29
 management consultants, 322–24
 nonimmigrant intent, proof required, 326
 nurses, 411
 procedures for TN visas, 319–20
 software engineers and systems analysts, 321
- national interest waivers, see EB-2 visas

- national security, see Security checks
- naturalization, 115–20
 children residing overseas, 120 conditional residents, 115–16
 continuous residence and physical presence, 116–20
 employment by petitioning employer, 116
 LPR spouses of U.S. citizens working abroad, 119
 military personnel, 120
 MAVNI program, 122–23
- no-tolerance policy, origin of, 2
- nonimmigrant intent, see Immigrant-intent presumption
- nonimmigrant visas, 155–67
see also specific visa classifications and specific professions
 adjustment, see Adjustment of status
 military personnel
 NIVs covered by MAVNI program, 121
- North Atlantic Free Trade Agreement, see
 NAFTA and TN visas
- NSEERS (National Security Entry Exit Registration System), 144–46
- numerical limitations
 H-1B cap, 213–16
 cap-gap for F-1 OPT, 215–16, 362–63
- nurses, 409–11
 H-1B visas, 410
 Schedule A, 49–50, 410
 TN visas, 411

O

- O visas (persons of extraordinary ability), 345–55
 accompanying aliens (O-2 visas), 355 multiple beneficiaries, 355 advantages, 346
 chefs and cooks, 404
 consultation requirement, 347–48
 dependents (O-3 visas), 355 eligibility criteria for O-1, 346–54 extraordinary ability, proof of, 348–54 chart summarizing requirements, 352–53
 persons in arts, television, and motion pictures, 349–50
 hospitality management professions, 407–08
 immigrant intent, 354
 pending immigrant petition, effect of, 354
 procedures, 345–46
 traded professional O-1 athletes, 354
- occupational classifications
 code explanation, 390–95
Dictionary of Occupational Titles (DOT), 386–95

Professionals: A Matter of Degree, Fifth Ed.

educational and training category codes, 435–43
 list of professional/specialist occupations, 425–43
Occupational Outlook Handbook (OOH), 398–400
 O*NET, 384–86
Revised Handbook for Analyzing Jobs (RHAI), 400 standard occupational classification (SOC)
 system, 396–98
Occupational Outlook Handbook (OOH), 398–400
 O*NET, 384–86
online resources, see Research tools optional practical training, see F-1 academic students
outstanding professors and researchers
 EB-1 visas, 26–39
overstays
 adjustment of status, effect on, 106–07

P

P visas (athletes, artists, entertainers), 365–70
 athletes
 coaches vs. competitors, 368–69 evidence for athlete P-1, 367–68 criteria and evidence, 365–66
 dependents (P-4 visas), 369
 P-1 visas (internationally recognized), 365–66
 P-1S visas (essential support personnel), 369–70
 P-2 visas (reciprocal exchange program), 369
 P-3 visas (culturally unique program), 369 performing artists
 O visas, see O visas
physical presence, see Continuous residence physical therapists
 Schedule A, see Schedule A physicians, 411–13
 foreign-residency requirement for J-1 program
 waivers, 317–18
 MAVNI program (Military Accessions Vital to the National Interest) for J-1s, 122 national interest waiver for clinical physicians, 56 pilot program, see EB-5 visas
PIMS (Petition Information Management System), 161–62
portability
 adjustment portability, 108
 H-1B visas, see H-1B visas premium processing, 157

prevailing-wage determinations, 276–79
 online resources
 DOL's Online Wage Library, 276–78 other online surveys, 278–79
prior approvals
 as persuasive evidence, 459–61
 significance of (text of 2004 Yates memo), 567–70
priority date, 102
Privacy Act, 143
professional-association memberships basis for degree-equivalency determination, 254
professionals
see also specific professions; specific visas
 list of professional/specialist occupations, 425–43
professors degree-equivalency determination, opinion of professor, 251
 EB-1 visas, 26–29
Program on Noncollegiate Sponsored Instruction (PONSI)
 degree-equivalency determination, 251, 253
programmers, see Computer and IT professionals
prospective employment
 EB-1 visas, 8

Q

Q visas (cultural exchange programs), 371–73
 chefs and cooks, 404
 eligibility for Q-1, 371–72
 Irish Peace Process Program (Q-2 visas), 372–73

R

R visas, see Religious workers
re-entry permits, 119
regional EB-5 centers, see EB-5 visas
religious workers
 EB-4 immigrants, 61–68
 attestation, 67
 bars to adjustment, 68
 burden of proof, 66
 checklist (text of Form M-736), 547–48
 compensation, 64–66
 concurrent filing, 68
 denial and revocation, 68 extension of program (text of 2003 Yates memo), 543–45
 investigations, 66
 petition (text of Form I-360), 551–60

- R nonimmigrants, 375–77
 - checklist (text of Form M-737), 549
 - dependents, 375
- requests for evidence (RFEs), 463
 - computer consulting industry, AILA-VSC liaison guidance on responding to RFE, 603
 - strategies for responding, 469–71
- research tools
 - DOL resources for determining professional and specialist status, 383–400
 - online resources, 525–30
 - prevailing-wage determinations, 276–79
- researchers
 - EB-1 visas, 26–29
 - national interest waivers, see EB-2 visas
- Revised Handbook for Analyzing Jobs (RHAJ)*, 400

S

- salary, see Wages
- same-sex couples
 - B-2 visas, 186
- Schedule A
 - EB-2 visas, 48–49
 - nurses, 410
- scientific technician/technologist
 - TN visas, 325
- second employment-based preference, see EB-2 visas
- security checks, 125–46
 - APIS (Advanced Passenger Information System), 128
 - biometric visas, 146
 - CLASS (Consular Lookout and Support System) and other DOS security checks, 130–34
 - consular check, 130
 - ESTA (Electronic System for Travel Authorization), 127–28, 188
 - FBI name checks, 129–30
 - G-325 checks, 130
 - IAFIS (Interagency Fingerprint Identification System), 128
 - IDENT (Automated Biometric Fingerprint Identification System), 128
 - Moslem-country foreign nationals, 133–34, 144–46
 - nonproliferation export control, 134
 - NSEERS, 144–46
 - Privacy Act considerations, 143
 - SEVIS (Student and Exchange Visitor Information System), 143
 - US-VISIT, 128
- USCIS procedures (text of 2009 Neufeld memo), 565–66
- SEVIS (Student and Exchange Visitor Information System), 143
- shortage of U.S. workers
 - E visas, 201
 - labor certification, see Labor certification
- Singaporean professionals
 - H-1B1 visas, 244–45
- skilled workers
 - EB-3 visas, 59–60
- software engineers, see Computer and IT professionals
- special immigrants
 - religious workers, see Religious workers
- special registration, see NSEERS
- specialized knowledge
 - L-1 visas, 337–44
- specialty occupation, see H-1B visas
- specific vocational preparation (SVP), 395–96
- spin-offs, see Mergers, acquisitions, and spin-offs
- spouses
 - see also* Domestic partners; specific visa types
 - military families, MAVNI program, 123
 - multiple wives, B-2 visas, 186
 - naturalization of LPR spouses of U.S. citizens working abroad, 119
- standard occupational classification (SOC) system, 396–98
- standard of proof, see Evidence
- start-up companies
 - E visas, 200
 - L-1 visas, 334–35
- status
 - change of, see Change of status
 - extension of, see Extension of status
 - last-action rule, 164–65
 - Hernandez letter (2004), 609–10
 - maintenance of status
 - adjustment applications, effect of failure to maintain status
 - no fault exception, 107
 - F-1 students and OPT, 362
- statute of limitations
 - federal court litigation, 508
- STEM (science, technology, engineering, math) graduates
 - extension of optional practical training, see F-1 academic students strikes

H-3 trainees, effect of strike, 303
LCA attestation regarding, 281

students, see F-1 academic students; J-1 visas

successors-in-interest, 102–03, 290
see also Mergers, acquisitions, and spin-offs systems analysts, see Computer and IT professionals

T

targeted employment areas, see EB-5 visas

TARP (Troubled Assets Relief Program)

H-1B-nonimmigrant issues, 213 technology transfer / Technology Alert List (TAL), see Export controls

termination of employment

H-1B workers, see H-1B visas

third-country nationals

visa applications in contiguous territories, 163–64

third employment-based preference, see EB-3 visas

third-party payment, 102

three- and ten-year bars, 166–67

three-for-one rule, see Degree equivalencies

TN visas, see NAFTA and TN visas trainees, see H-3 trainees; J-1 visas translators and interpreters, 423–24

Military Accessions Vital to the National Interest (MAVNI) program, 121–22

Transportation Security Administration (TSA)

security checks, see Security checks

travel, see Continuous residence and physical presence; H-1B visas; Security checks

Uunauthorized employment

see also Employment verification adjustment of status, effect of unauthorized employment, 106–07
H-1B workers, see H-1B visas

unions, see Labor unions

university professors, see Professors

unlawful presence

three- and ten-year bars, 166–67

unskilled workers

EB-3 visas, 60

U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS)

adjudication, USCIS discretion, 605–08

case status online, 157

disclosure to attorneys of any security-check hits, 143

E-Verify program, 360–61

forms, see Forms

inquiry procedures, 157–58

memoranda (full text)

Determination of Ability to Pay Under 8 CFR §204.5(g)(2) (Yates 2004), 561–63

Extension of Special Immigrant Religious Worker Program (Yates 2003), 543–45

Legal and Discretionary Analysis for Adjudication (Divine 2006), 605–08

National Security Adjudication and Reporting Requirements (Neufeld 2009), 565–66

Periods of Admission for Aliens Previously in H-4 or L-2 Status (Aytes 2006), 653–63

Significance of Prior USCIS Approval of an NIV in Context of a Subsequent Determination re Extension Eligibility (Yates 2004), 567–70

Supplemental Guidance Relating to Processing Forms I-140, I-129, and I-485 Affected by AC21 (Neufeld 2008), 585–601

security checks, see Security checks

U.S. Customs and Border Protection (CBP)

security checks, see Security checks

US-VISIT, 128

Vvenue

federal-court challenges, 507

verification of employment, see Employment verification

visa stamps

applying for and extending, 160–64

visa waiver program (VWP), 186–88

ESTA (Electronic System for Travel Authorization), 127–28, 188

visas, see Consular processing; Immigrant visas; Nonimmigrant visas; Security checks; specific types of visas

Visas Condor, 132–34

Visas Donkey & Visas Bear, 132

Visas Eagle, 132

Visas Horse & Visas Pegasus, 132

W

wages

- high salary as proof of extraordinary ability, 22
- LCA attestations, see Labor condition applications
- religious workers' compensation, 64–66

work authorization

- see also* Unauthorized employment
- E-1 and E-2 spouses, 202
- L-2 derivatives, 344

work experience

- degree equivalencies, see Degree equivalencies

work stoppages

- LCA attestation regarding, 281

writers, 423–24

writing guidelines

- persuasive appellate briefs, 471–74, 484–94
- style, 473–74, 494–98