

This is the defrost wire connection on the indoor unit.

The Defrost wire attaches to the PC Board.

The wire is sometimes located on the underside of the unit near the piping and drain hose connection.

The outdoor connection is located in or near the electrical compartment. It is the only wire with this connection. The wires on the outdoor unit are generally blue.