christmas	A Christmas Experiment	RCA: 09026-68880-2	13.95	The 'experiment' the five members of the Canadian Brass undertook was to celebrate Christmas with a true family gathering, inviting musically and artistically talented relatives of all ages to join them in renditions of such holiday classics as 'The Night Before Christmas', 'Jingle Bells', 'O Come All Ye Faithful', 'Silent Night', and 'Little Drummer Boy'. In addition, the Brass is accompanied by the Bach's Children's Chorus, the Georgian Bay Children's Chorus, and selected instrumentalists. The affair is a joyous one, with every song arranged imaginatively and performed with due reverence for the holiday tradition. A Christmas album that radiates with the true spirit of the season. - CD Review from Billboard  All arrangements by Christopher Dedrick. Contains: The Night Before Christmas (Moore) * Jingle Bells (Pierpont) * Sleigh Runners (Dedrick) * Jolly Old St. Nick (trad.) * Rudolph The Red-nosed Reindeer (Marks) * Oh Christmas Tree (trad.) * Sleigh Bells (Dedrick) * Sweet Songs Of Christmas (Dedrick) * Spinner (Santa's Little Elf) (Dedrick) * Frosty the Snowman christmas	A Christmas Gloria - The Mormon Tabernacle Choir and The Canadian Brass	BWE Classics 0196	13.95	Celebrate the spirit of the season with the world-famous Mormon Tabernacle Choir and the Canadian Brass. The unique blend of classical virtuosity and high-spirited performance which distinguishes The Canadian Brass produces a result which is nothing short of spectacular when joined by the enchanting sound of the Tabernacle Choir's 350 voices. A Christmas Gloria blends this magnificent performance of Christmas music with an inspiring montage of scenes. christmas	Noel	RCA: 09026-62683-2	13.95	If you were expecting a normal Canadian Brass recording, well, you should know by now -- there isn't any such thing. This group always has a few surprises waiting for its listeners. The CD seems to have tried to cram several disc's worth on to one program. There's an impressive roster of RCA stars -- James Galway, Richard Stoltzman, Jerry Hadley, the King's Singers -- along with a big jazz band and a children's choir. It's a flashy, slick production with lots of instruments, some electric: even Bach and Handel are given a pop flavor. A highlight is the amazing tuba playing of Chuck Daellenbach on an arrangement of Leroy Anderson's 'Trumpet Lullaby' - David Vernier Contains: God Rest ye Merry Gentlemen * The Holly and the Ivy with James Galway * Let the Merry Bells Ring Round * Short Fantasy on a Catalan Carol with Angel Romero * The Angel Choir and the Trumpeter * The Toy Trumpet * Angels We Have Heard on High * Jesu, Joy of Man's Desiring with Richard Stoltzman * O Holy Night * Tuba Lullaby * Have Yourself a Merry Little Christmas with Harolyn Blackwell * Sleigh Ride video: education	Strings, Winds, and all that Brass - The Inspiration of Music	HL 50481640	15.95	Strings, Winds and All That Brass is an educational tape full of young musicians sharing their experiences and rewards that the study of music can bring. It was produced to help all who see the program realize the cultural value of music to our society, and thus be inspired to support both private and school music educational Music is an essential part of a well-rounded education, teaching children many lifelong skills such as problem solving, self-discipline, teamwork and self-confidence. The Canadian Brass encourages all parents to get involved with the music department at their children's schools. Besides the student interviews, famed trumpeter Wynton Marsalis makes a guest appearance, and members of the New York Philharmonic and the Boston Symphony provide entertaining insight on how they chose their particular instruments. Welcome to "Strings, Winds and All that Brass", and discover the inspiration of music.	System NTSC

video:live	BOOTLEG Canadian Brass Concert	HL 00320198	19.95	Color, Stereo, ca.60 Minutes This was going to be it -- the last concert that these five members of the Canadian Brass would be sharing. Fred was leaving the group, and Jens Lindemann, the new trumpet player, was in town to hear and see the show. Unbeknownst to the group, Gene's son Keith Watts had seized this moment of history, organizing a bootleg video shot (later authorized by Gene) to capture the excitement. The result is this brilliant program displaying the Canadian Brass at its most entertaining. From the delightful commentaries of Chuck and Gene to the most important work in the Brass Quintet repertoire, Bach's Toccata and Fugue in D minor arranged by Fred. video:live	Canadian Brass Live	HL 50488559	19.95	Color, Stereo, 50 Minutes * Produced by Gurtman and Murtha Associates, New York From their entrance down the main aisle playing "Just a Closer Walk" to their encore, an improbably combination of "When The Saints Go Marching In" and Handel's "Hallelujah Chorus," this quintet of artists created an atmosphere of total enjoyment in which laughter freely mingled with gasps of amazement. It's amazing to watch what a rollicking good time these five talented people have while performing. -- Excerpted from a video review in The Washington Post. The famous concert antics that separate the Canadian Brass from all other ensembles are captured in this lively example of the Brass at their best in performance. The highly-acclaimed video was a Rid Ribbon Winner in the American Film and Video Association awards. Program includes: Just a Closer Walk * The Saints' Hallelujah * Carnival of Venice * Handful of Keys * Gabrieli's Canzona per sonare No. 4 * Bach's Little Fugue in G minor * Boy Mozart * Tribute to the Ballet	System NTSC

video:movies	Home Movies	HL 440070236-3	19.95	Color, Stereo, 53 Minutes Imagine, if you will, a typical Canadian Brass concert presented in a lush, beautiful set. Add MTV-like recreations of scenes such as David's first apartment and Fred's first birthday, and you have Home Movies. This is an utterly charming combination of concert video mixed with humorous bits such as Canadian Brass fans have come to expect from their favorite brass ensemble. The music is drawn from the Canadian Brass album The Essential Canadian Brass, and includes such favorites as Turkish Rondo (Mozart), Fugue in G minor, and Toccata and Fugue in D minor (Bach), and the now-famous Saints' Hallelujah.
