Environmental Industry Summit 2004
San Diego, California USA
March 10 - 12, 2004
Coronado Island Marriott Resort

Environmental Business International Inc, publisher of Environmental Business Journal, Environmental Information Ltd., the research firm for EI Digest, and Chartwell Information, publisher of Solid Waste Digest invite you to the first annual Environmental Industry Summit in San Diego, California.

Being held at the prestigious waterfront Coronado Island Marriott Resort, special events include a welcoming dinner on Wednesday, an outdoor luncheon, interactive sessions on Wednesday through Friday, sailing and golf.

Our agenda will allow 80 key executives to focus on the big-picture issues challenging the environmental industry—and where their next client is coming from. The sessions will provide briefings by leading business and regulatory experts with ample opportunities for exchanging views and networking.

Issue-specific sessions

- Regulations
- Policy & Market Drivers
- Management & Transitions
- Industry Advocacy
- The Investment Climate

Industry segment-specific sessions

- Consulting & Engineering
- Hazardous Waste/Remediation
- Solid Waste/Recycling
- Water/Wastewater
- Air Quality

Participation will be limited, so mail/fax the participation form on the right or visit www.ebiusa.com to reserve your spot. Registration fee of $995 covers all meals and events excluding golf and resort accommodations. For full agenda and updates, visit www.ebiusa.com.
