ITEM AVAILABILITY

Availability is posted under every item on www.musotica.com. "Availability" means "Processing Time." That is how long it takes us to process your order and be ready to ship to you. Note that time is only estimated and may vary due to certain conditions. Please read the "availability" underneath each item carefully. For Example: Items with an availability within 1-2 weeks, cannot ship out next day air service. We can ship via the service you desire when the product has arrived and is available in stock.

Most items have a 2-3 day availability, a 5-7 day availability, or a 1-2 week availability. All are calculated in business days. Weekends and American holidays are not included.

Availability of more than one item may affect the delivery of another. We prefer shipping out multiple items at the same time and will wait until that happens. IE: If one item is available within 2-3 days but another item is available in 1-2 weeks, we will ship at the latest date possible. Please order separately if one item has a priority over another one.
