Durham's photos get carded

Photographer Ron Durham is getting extra exposure for his dreamy sepia-tone panorama photos. Last year, six of the images were transformed into stylish note cards by graphic designer Jenn Kutlenios of Columbia Township. The set – which includes two scenes of Kentucky, two of Cincinnati and one of the Grand Canyon – caught the attention of Finch Fine Paper. The company recently produced a run of the cards to show off its Soft White Finch Fine Cover paper. Sales reps pass along the cards. You can buy a set for $10 at Eine Kleine Photograph, Durham's gallery at 610 Main St. in Covington's MainStrasse district. Preview Durham's work at his gorgeous Web site, www.rondphoto.com (don't forget the "d," otherwise you'll get San Francisco photographer Ron Schreier, who specializes in wedding and portrait photography, and who is very good, too).
