Recommended by Our Lady and Our Lord for the END TIMES

God never strikes without warning. He has sent us His Holy Mother who came and wept at LA SALETTE (1846), but she was neither listened to nor believed.

God will therefore punish without precedence the whole universe. Earlier on He had indicated to Marie-Julie Jahenny (1873), (who had the stigmata and was held in high esteem by some bishops of Nantes) the natural and supernatural means of protecting ourselves with blessed candles and other items for the three days of darkness.

On the 27th of November 1902 & the 10th of May 1904, Our Lord and Our Lady announced to Marie-Julie Jahenny, the "New Mass"- Listen: "I give you a WARNING. The disciples who are not of My Gospel are now working hard to remake according to their ideas AND UNDER THE INFLUENCE OF THE ENEMY OF SOULS A MASS THAT CONTAINS WORDS THAT ARE ODIOS IN MY SIGHT..."

I beg you to take 10 steps back and look at what happened to the Mass, 20 years after the council, what direction has the church gone & where is it going? Do not be fooled, please research & educate yourselves, your soul is at stake!

God Bless

BK-DRHB1	The Douay-Rheims Haydock Bible (Regular Price 125.00) Every human mind was created to accept the Catholic Truth. The bible is absolute Catholic Truth because the Catholic Church is the Mother of the Bible. This is a magnificent reprint, (photographically reproduced from a very large Bible first printed in 1884). The commentary covers from one-third to one-half of the space from every page and was selected by highly respected Fr. George Leo Haydock. Throughout the 1800's the best known Douay-Rheims Bibles were known as "Haydock Bibles" because of the powerful foot-notes or commentary that was selected by Fr. Haydock to help the faithful understand scripture according to the mind of the Church. No more opinions of so-called "experts" or faithless theologians. Bible study groups can now come alive with truth and knowledge we have been hungry for. Soft cover textbook style for easy review of Old and New Testament.	95.00

AV-WWHL	What We Have Lost (DVD) ...and the Road to Restoration. A critical look at the changes in the Catholic Church. This video gives you an intimate, up-close look at the destructive and wide-spread changes that have taken place in the two-thousand-year-old Catholic Church since the close of the Second Vatican Council in 1965. Much of what you see will surprise you, maybe even shock you, and-unfortunately-will sadden you. "What We Have Lost" not only exposes the external damage that has been done to the Universal Church, but goes deep behind the scenes to reveal the hidden changes; how and when they were made; and who made them. This video asks the hard questions: Is the Church still Catholic? Has She lost the true faith? Does the clergy still truly "believe?" Can we count on today's Church to lead us to salvation? The answers found in "What We Have Lost" may bring you to anger-or to tears. But after you see it, you will never look at the "modern" Church in the same way again. And "What We Have Lost" is about hope. Hope in Jesus Christ and His one true Church on earth. Plus it's about the restoration of the Traditional Latin Mass and the "Faith of our Fathers;" and it documents the groundswell of traditionalism within the Church, and how you can be part of it, on the "Road to Restoration."	10.00

General Directions for Preparing Herbal Teas*

INFUSIONS: Leaves, Flowers, Herbs and other thin materials should be prepared as an infusion. Pour 1 cup boiling water, over 1 teaspoon of herb, cover with tight fitting lid to avoid evaporation, let steep for approximately 10 to 20 minutes. Do not boil! Strain out botanicals or remove teabag or infuser from the tea, and drink it lukewarm or cool.

Infusions have a short shelf life, so use them soon after you prepare them.

To induce sweating or to break up a cold/cough, drink it hot!

DECOCTIONS: Roots, Bark, Seeds and other coarse botanicals should be made as decoctions. Place 1 teaspoon of dried herb in enamel or glass container with 1 cup of pure water. Instead of steeping the mixture, boil it; 5 minutes if material is finely shredded, but if herb is hard or wood, 20 minutes is necessary to produce a good decoction. It helps if herb is first soaked in cold water, then brought to a boil! Decoctions should always be strained while hot.

POWDERED HERBS: Use only ¼ teaspoon, pour 1 cup boiling water over the powder, and let steep 3 to 5 minutes. The powder will not dissolve, but will lay on the bottom of the cup. This sediment may be consumed if you wish to do so.

General directions suggest drinking 3 to 4 cups of tea daily. Teas can be flavored to taste with stevia, honey, raw sugar, or lemon (never use refined sugar), however, teas are best taken without adding sugars or flavorings!

RENE CAISSE'S HERBAL FORMULA: Treatment for Cancer

Canadian Nurse Rene M. Caisse claimed the source of her recipe was an old Indian medicine man. Rene treated cancer patients with her Essiac remedy for 50 years, Rene M. Caisse Cancer Clinic operated from 1935 until 1941. Rene Caisse kept her formula a secret most of her life, concerned that lay people would make it incorrectly or it would be commercially exploited. She even refused to reveal it to interested research centers in the US, like Memorial Sloan-Kettering Cancer Center and the Brusck Medical Clinic.

Rene Caisse: "The many reasons why I was not put in prison for running an open "Cancer Clinic" at Bracebridge, Ontario, for eight years were:

First: Because I achieved good results in animal research, under the observation of medical doctors. My treatments caused a regression of the malignant growth in the mice, and prolonged life.

Second: Because I achieved the same results on humans, always treating with the permission of medical men of good standing, and under their observation.

Third: Because I had clinical x-ray and pathological proof of results, after every thing known to medical science had failed.

Fourth: Because 55,000 persons signed a petition to the Ontario Government Legislature in favor of my treatment for cancer; 387 patients and many doctors signed this same petition, which was presented to legislative committee of 59 members of parliament. I lost out because of only 3 votes. I lost because the doctors had assured the Legislature beforehand that they would appoint a "Cancer Commission" to hear my case, and to give my treatment a fair hearing which proved to be a very unfair hearing, as you will see in this story. Notes: The Cancer Commission could not accuse me of NOT getting good results, because I had the living proof. They could not accuse me of exploiting the public, for I never made a charge for ESSIAC treatment, and many of the patients treated during the 1930's are still living."

According to the FDA, there are no scientific clinical studies that prove Rene Caisse's formula cures, alleviates or prevents any disease or condition. Essiac stories and testimonies are not medical proof.

Talk to your health care provider before taking any kind of alternative herbal supplement.

My whole family, including my young grandchildren, use Stevia to sweeten tea, coffee, and in recipes, and we love it! Note: If you want to use for cooking, it is best to use liquid Stevia, it blends easy and is clear. The Stevia powder is green and does NOT dissolve easily.

* Please Note: Although we here at St. Michael Store do use many of these herbs and have found them to be very beneficial, St Michael's does not directly or indirectly dispense medical advice or prescribe the use of herbs, it is recommended that you do your own research.

MONASTERY ICONS

Handcrafted Monastery Icons

In the Eastern Orthodox Church, icons are called “Windows Into Heaven,” for through them we receive a vision of the spiritual world. The monks make these mounted reproductions as their way of saying to whoever sees them: “Lift up your heart unto the Lord!”

Mounted on wood, they are key-holed on the back for hanging on the wall. Icons are limited and will only be available while supplies last!

The Society of St. Monica

What can compare to the solitude and concern of a wife and mother for her family? What mother does not seek the best things for her children, and the security of blessings for her entire family?

Unfortunately in our day, the secular society in which we live seeks not only to debase and deride motherhood, but to destroy the family unit as the basic element upon which human civilization rests.

In the face of this onslaught, which now sends its corrupting influence across generational lines, so many wives, and mothers- especially those who strive to live the life of grace within the true Church- see their children and their families being lost to lives of sin and dissolution.

To combat this most deadly evil, the Society of St. Monica has been formed. Under the patronage of Saint Monica, herself a mother who suffered at the dissolute life of her son, the Society is an organization of Catholic wives and mothers bound together through charity and the desire to increase their own sanctification and the sanctification of their loved ones through prayer and the living of their holy vocation.

Through the prayers and sacrifices of the Society, God's blessings and graces are begged for the conversion of those who live lives of sin, and for the courage and perseverance of those who hear the call of grace. If, through the grace of God and the loving prayer, suffering, and sacrifice of Saint Monica, the conversion of her sinful son- whom we know today as the great Doctor of the Church, Saint Augustine- could be effected, then let us fly to her protection and patronage in our needs.

The demands of membership in the society are few, but the rewards are great!

Society Requisites:

A one-time donation of $10.00

Benefits of being a member of the Society:

1. Assistance of the prayers of the entire society in union with your own for your loved ones and for you.
2. Book and Prayer Card of St. Monica, and Relic Cloth with Medal of St. Monica.
3. Newsletter of the Society of St. Monica
4. A votive candle will be lit for your intentions and placed before the Image of St. Monica at the Chapel of Our Lady of Lourdes.
5. Remembrance of you and your intentions each month at a special Mass offered for the Society, its members, and their intentions.

*YOUR MOTHER IS CALLING YOU HOME!
