Under "Payment Method" below select the credit card you'll be using. If you'll be paying by bank cashier's check or money order, print out this page completely and remit the total including shipping and sales tax (if any.) NOTE: Since we are directed by the credit card companies to ship ONLY to the billing address on file with the credit card company, make sure your shipping address on the previous page is exactly the same as the name and address on your credit card statement. This is very strict by your bank's directives. You can always add additional addresses to your credit card account by calling your credit card company. Leave the "Same As Shipping Address" button below checked or your bank may reject your order. Thank you!
