

BLOODGOOD IN THE MEDIA

Publication: Aardshok America
 Issue: December 1986
 Title: Metalscape
 Author: Unknown

Bloodgood is a new total metal band. They've got a vocalist that'll make your ears bleed, ex- JOSHUA Les Carlsen, a guitarist heavily influenced by Jeff Beck and Edward Van Halen, David Zaffiro, a twelve year veteran to the scene ex- MORNING STAR and CYPRESS bassist, Mike Bloodgood and some new blood drummer Mark Welling who adds so strongly to their foundation as a person and musician.

These four disciples of the metal faith will rock your block off. The music on their first LP "BLOODGOOD" is comparable to that of DIO and PRIEST whose styles of heaviness are heard throughout their album, but they've also got their own unique style sounding similar to some of the heavies of the 70's.

The only thing out of the norm of metal about their music is their lyrics. BLOODGOOD is a Christian metal band. They don't overburden their tunes of listeners with wishy-washy lyrics about Jesus. "We want to encourage the young people to turn to Jesus Christ." Encourage is the word. They are more concerned with letting listeners know that it's good to lean towards the positive side of things and to them Jesus is that.

Les, Mike, David and Mark have all been "born again" at one time or another which to them represents a change in attitude, direction and even heart. They feel that they're giving the kids and alternative to the overwhelming supply of satanic lyrics or the variety of lyrics in metal music. BLOODGOOD offers total unrelenting metal with a completely positive message.

In March of '86 they released their first LP self titled "BLOODGOOD" on Frontline Records and are possibly going to do a video. As they have begun recording material for their second LP, Mike Bloodgood, band founder, says it won't be released for a while, but they hope to release a four song EP called "Awake". They will re-release the title track "Awake" and design the EP for radio play.

So while you're waiting for BLOODGOOD's future releases, try giving BLOODGOOD'S "Bloodgood" a chance. I guarantee you won't regret it.

ATTILA
 Attila is a three man power possum band that was formed by John Les, Mike Bloodgood and Mark Welling in 1985. They were joined by vocalist/bassist Vincent Zaffiro and they recorded a demo in 1985 and in 1985 they released an EP titled "Bloodgood".

BLOODGOOD
 Bloodgood is a new total metal band. They've got a vocalist that'll make your ears bleed, ex- JOSHUA Les Carlsen, a guitarist heavily influenced by Jeff Beck and Edward Van Halen, David Zaffiro, a twelve year veteran to the scene ex- MORNING STAR and CYPRESS bassist, Mike Bloodgood and some new blood drummer Mark Welling who adds so strongly to their foundation as a person and musician.

These four disciples of the metal faith will rock your block off. The music on their first LP "BLOODGOOD" is comparable to that of DIO and PRIEST whose styles of heaviness are heard throughout their album, but they've also got their own unique style sounding similar to some of the heavies of the 70's.

The only thing out of the norm of metal about their music is their lyrics. BLOODGOOD is a Christian metal band. They don't overburden their tunes of listeners with wishy-washy lyrics about Jesus. "We want to encourage the young people to turn to Jesus Christ." Encourage is the word. They are more concerned with letting listeners know that it's good to lean towards the positive side of things and to them Jesus is that.

Les, Mike, David and Mark have all been "born again" at one time or another which to them represents a change in attitude, direction and even heart. They feel that they're giving the kids and alternative to the overwhelming supply of satanic lyrics or the variety of lyrics in metal music. BLOODGOOD offers total unrelenting metal with a completely positive message.

Recent compilation album "METAL OF THE 80'S" they released that LP. It's a total rock and roll "ATTILA" John Les Carlsen's heavy influence by PRIEST, A.T., Overkill and Iron Maiden plus as their sound closer needs a comparison to the LP. Although John Les, Mike Bloodgood and Mark Welling are one, they were when from "and the absolute... and... they... are... together" by John who does most of the writing. A few lines from the "Attitude and aggression" in the form of another "and" and "person development" starting out for what you believe in, the construction, do something with yourself that you do best." ATTILA

Supporting their demo tape, ATTILA took up what they say with fast, strong, powerful metal. They plan to go of it again this winter when they record ATTILA plan to begin recording for their next LP possibly releasing in March of '87.

In March of '86 they released their first LP self titled "BLOODGOOD" on Frontline Records and are possibly going to do a video. As they have begun recording material for their second LP, Mike Bloodgood, band founder, says it won't be released for a while, but they hope to release a four song EP called "Awake". They will re-release the title track "Awake" and design the EP for radio play.

So while you're waiting for BLOODGOOD'S future releases, try giving BLOODGOOD'S "Bloodgood" a chance. I guarantee you won't regret it.

Playlist- Leece Lee

1. Metallica – "Fade to Black"
2. Yngwie Malmsteen – "Trilogy"
3. Megadeth – "Peace Sells But..."
4. Warlock – "True as Steel"
5. Iron Maiden – "Somewhere In Time"
6. Metal Church – "The Dark"
7. Détente – "Recognize No Authority"
8. Kuni – "Masque"
9. Bloodgood – "Bloodgood"
10. Motorhead – "Orgasmatron"

Playlist – P.J. Lee

1. Megadeth – "Peace Sells But..."
2. Metallica – "Fade to Black"
3. Wild Dogs – "Reign of Terror"
4. Warlock – "True as Steel"
5. Détente – "Recognize No Authority"
6. Iron Maiden – "Somewhere In Time"
7. Yngwie Malmsteen – "Trilogy"
8. Motorhead – "Orgasmatron"
9. Metal Church – "The Dark"
10. Bloodgood – "Bloodgood"