THE MEMBERS OF RESCUE INK UNLEASHED, APPEARING AT SUPER PET EXPO

Available for on-site or in-studio interviews on Thursday, March 18th, Friday, March 19th and Saturday, March 20th.

Chantilly, VA – Super Pet Expo welcomes the founders and stars of Rescue Ink Unleashed who will be appearing March 19th through March 21st at the Dulles Expo Center in Chantilly, VA.

RESCUE INK is a rescue group unlike any you have seen before – a bunch of tattooed, motorcycle-riding tough guys who have joined together to fight animal cruelty, educate abusers and help resolve situations other rescue groups can't or won't handle themselves. Some of the guys grew up in the projects, some had their brushes with the law, and some used their smarts to survive, even thrive on the streets. Today they all share a common goal: Using every means within the thin boundaries of the law, they persuade and educate abusers about the right way to treat animals.

Joe Panz, Member of Rescue Ink says, "If you don't like us from the way we look, we can't help that. But if you're not part of the solution, you're part of the problem, so stay out of the way."

Show hours are 4:00 to 9:00 PM on Friday; 10:00 AM to 7:00 PM on Saturday; and 10:00 AM to 5:00 PM on Sunday. Admission is $13 for adults, $6 for children ages four to 12, and FREE for kids three and under. Buy tickets online at www.superpetexpo.com and kids attend free. Leashed pets are welcome.

ABOUT RESCUE INK UNLEASHED:

Rescue Link Unleashed appears on the National Geographic Channel. This weekly series documents this unlikely group of animal activists on their crusade to save helpless, abandoned and abused animals. The eclectic band of brothers composed of club bouncers, security guards and even a retired New York Police Department (NYPD) detective is on call 24/7 to take on cases no one else will. They are not cops, animal experts or even animal control. They are just big guys with even bigger hearts and a desire to save animals from deplorable living conditions and abusive or simply misguided owners. Details at www.rescueink.org.
