OSN™ DEBUTS NEW LINE OF OF STYLISH, PROFESSIONAL CAMERA BAGS AT PMA

"New OSN Bags Offer Function, Style and Value"

OSN™, a manufacturer and distributor of high-quality digital and camera accessories and professional and digital tripods, arrives at PMA 2005 with news of a new line of professional camera bags. During the trade show, the company will officially unveil its contemporary and complete line of camera, camcorder and digital bags.

OSN is a company that has built its reputation on inventiveness and originality in the arena of digital accessories. Now, it has expanded its product line to include a new family of branded OSN soft camera bags. Embracing the rich tradition of photography, the OSN camera bags feature cutting-edge styles, as well as creative carrying solutions that meet the professional photographer's diverse travel requirements and shooting needs.

Engineered with the finest material, the bags provide strong protection, as well as quick and easy access to equipment.

Fashionable and functional are the best descriptions for the new OSN bags, which come in an array of sizes, shapes and designs and are ideal for the professional photographer, as well as the enthusiast.
