Calabrese Brothers Music, LLC started publishing to provide quality music at a good value. This company is staffed by professional musicians and composers. The company is focused on a wide variety of music including “serious” classical, “light” classical and contemporary gospel genres for the education, church, and the professional markets. Our catalog includes elementary through cutting edge professional level secular and sacred, choral and vocal, percussion, solo, ensemble, orchestral and multi-media repertoire from world renowned American composers. The company is currently developing new percussion repertoire to meet the demand of the professional and student percussionist.
