 - 1.5.5 Chinese companies expanding their presence in the Western markets
- 1.6 Reactions of the global pharma industry to the series of improvements
 - 1.6.1 Western pharma companies still sourcing APIs in China
 - 1.6.2 Recent market reactions to the Chinese-made APIs
 - 1.6.3 Indian companies increasing sourcing of APIs and pharma intermediates in China

Chapter Two: Current Market Size, Service Capability and Key Players

Summary

- 2.1 Introduction
- 2.2 Current market size and service capability of Chinese CMO industry
 - 2.2.1 Current market size of Chinese CMO industry
 - 2.2.2 How to compare it with global CMO market

1. Current market size of global CMO industry
2. Current market size of Asian CMO industry
- 2.2.3 Current service capability of Chinese CMO industry
- 2.3 Current market size and service capability of Chinese API industry
 - 2.3.1 Current total market size of Chinese API industry
 - 2.3.2 Current market value of Chinese-made APIs marketed overseas
 - 2.3.3 How to compare it with the global API market
 1. Current market size of global API industry
 2. Current market size of Asian API industry
 - 2.3.4 Current manufacturing capability and capacity of Chinese API industry
 - 2.3.5 Current service capability of Chinese companies in API manufacturing of developmental drugs
- 2.4 Case studies: Key players of Chinese API industry

Chapter Three: How to Effectively Conduct API Sourcing and Outsourcing in China

Summary

- 3.1 Introduction
- 3.2 Analysis of the weakness of Chinese API makers, issues associated with the Chinese API supply chain and solutions of how to overcome them
- 3.3 Classification of Chinese CMOs and API suppliers
- 3.4 Analysis of the key differences between the Chinese cGMP and the Western cGMP
- 3.5 What API quality standards are followed nowadays by Chinese API makers?
- 3.6 Analysis of the differences in business principles between Chinese companies and their Western counterparts and practical advices of how to avoid pitfalls in sourcing/outsourcing in China
 - 3.6.1 Differences in business conduct between the West and the East

 2. Assumed responsibility versus required responsibility
 3. Consistency versus randomness
 4. Business relationship versus personal relationship
 5. Summary of the characteristics of Chinese culture in business conduct
 - 3.6.2 Two approaches in sourcing/outsourcing APIs in China
 - 3.6.3 How to avoid pitfalls in sourcing/outsourcing APIs in China
- 3.7 How to set criteria for choosing a CMO and/or an API supplier in China
- 3.8 Strategies for effective collaboration with Chinese companies
- 3.9 Advices to small biotech companies outsourcing in China

Chapter Four: Future Development of Chinese API and Contract Manufacturing Industry

Summary

- 4.1 Introduction

- 4.2 Analysis of external drivers of future growth of Chinese API and contract manufacturing industries
 - 4.2.1 Analysis of the demand for APIs of marketed drugs
 - 4.2.2 Analysis of the demand for contract manufacturing of APIs of developmental drugs
- 4.3 Analysis of internal drivers of future growth of Chinese API and contract manufacturing industries
 - 4.3.1 Improvements in technical capability and product quality control
 - 4.3.2 China is implementing the new cGMP standard which is closer to that implemented by the EMEA
 - 4.3.3 On-going nationwide healthcare reform
 - 4.3.4 More investors interested in investing in Chinese CMOs and/or API suppliers
- 4.4 Market development forecast of Chinese API and contract manufacturing industries
 - 4.4.1 Market growth forecast of Chinese CMO industry
 - 4.4.2 Market growth forecast of Chinese API industry
 - 4.4.3 Future growth forecast of Chinese API export industry
- 4.5 How to compare them with the future growth of global markets
 - 4.5.1 Future growth forecast of global CMO industry
 - 4.5.2 Future growth forecast of Asian CMO industry
 - 4.5.3 Future growth forecast of global API market
 - 4.5.4 Future growth forecast of Asian API market
- 4.6 Future growth pattern of Chinese API and contract manufacturing industries
 - 4.6.1 More Chinese-made APIs and finished drugs will be marketed in the well regulated markets
 - 1. Market growth forecast of Chinese-made dosage form medicines marketed overseas
 - 2. How to compare with the same industry sector in India
 - 4.6.2 Major pharma companies will license generic drugs from Chinese companies and market them worldwide
 - 4.6.3 More consolidations
 - 4.6.4 Contract manufacturing of biologic APIs will gradually grow in China
- 4.7 Key issues Chinese API suppliers and CMOs will still face in the near future
 - 4.7.1 Fast rise of labor cost
 - 4.7.2 Higher standards of product quality and environment protection
 - 4.7.3 Abiding by the international rule of the game
 - 4.7.4 Competition from neighboring countries
