

gratitude

One more thing...

In our lives and in our work, we believe in leading with gratitude. We give heartfelt thanks to all the amazing people who shared their talent and insights in helping us bring The Baby Cuisine Cookbook to life. Special thanks to our families and friends for their love, support, babysitting, and recipe-testing along the way. A very special thank you to Dr. Tamara Cullen, Jessica Peterson of One Tree Photography, Eric Wyttenbach of Ewyttdesign, and all the beautiful babies on the following pages, you all made these pages come to life!

We also thank Keekaroo Highchairs for believing in Alina's Cucina early on – it is our favorite highchair!
