The eGift template below is not a valid TackleDirect eGift Certificate and has no cash value or redemption capabilities. Its sole purpose is for an eGift template to present to a gift recipient rather than a plain text email with the certification code. A valid eGift Certificate code, which was emailed to the recipient's email address provided upon purchase, is required to redeem the value. At checkout time on our online store, simply enter your gift certificate code in the appropriate box. Make sure that you enter the complete code, starting with the "@" sign.
