

Laura Moore

Billy's a Bad Kitty

Renowned Art fairs from Dana Point, CA to Edinburgh, Scotland offer artist Laura Moore's exceptional line of jewelry. Long appreciated for their evocation of a distinctive organic beauty and clean and simple lines, these unique pieces are now available to you at BillysBadKitty.com.

Laura's exploration of form, structure, character and life further her pursuit of capturing "The Art of Nature".

Employing Japanese Precious Metal Clay, PMC, and objects from nature, the artist creates a one-of-a-kind form that shapes fine-grade silver into wearable art. Laura finishes using a variety of intricate surface treatments to bring out the texture and detail of every piece. They are enhanced with delicate silver chains and real gem stones making each piece original and uniquely charming.
